GERMANY CALLS FOR PROMPT INFORMATION.

Mails from the Prinz Heinrich Restored Without Explanations.

Kaiser's Government Conducting Its Case Independ ent of Great Britain—British Regard Seizures and Overhauling of Vessels in the Red Sea as Very Grave International Incident.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
LONDON, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is believed by naval officers cognizant of certain orders issued to British warships that the British government means to compel the Russians to give up the steamship Malacca, which they seized as a prize of war and are taking to Liban. It is also confidently expected, for the same reason, that it will stop of KWS, (abrupt a complete stop to the unlawful operations of the Russian volunteer cruisers.

The Malacca is reported, in last evening's dispatches, to be pro ceeding through the Suez Canal toward Port Said, navigated by a Rus sian crew and flying the Russian flag. One development has been the detaching, by Admiral Dornville, who commands the Mediter anean squadron of two cruisers, under orders to proceed to Port Said, which is at the northern end of the Suez Canal. It is assumed that these cruisers will reach Port Said ahead of the Malacca and be there when she arrives. It is probable that they will compel the Russians to give up the prize.

Talk tonight among the naval officers who know of the dispatch of the cruisers to Port Said shows strong expectation that this course will be pursued.

S. PETERSBURG, July 19, 6:30 p.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Ger many has called attention to the seizure of the mails on board the Prinz Heinrich in the Red Sea, July 15, by the Smolensk, and has requested ex planations. These have not yet been given the report of the commander of the Smolensk not having arrived. The restoration of the mails yesterday was made without instructions from St.
Petersburg. Russia having declared independence for the Japanese to be constrained of war, main tains the right to examine such mail,
but does not contend for the right to take such general mail addressed to Japan, and unless peculiar circum stances justified the seizure of the mails on board the Prinz Heinrich, the act will be disavowed.

AUTHORITIES TRANQUIL.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]
ST. PETERSBURG, July 19, 6:30
p.m.—The Russian authorities appar ently are tranquil on the subject of seizure of the volunteer fleet passing through the Dardanelles. They main tain that they are perfectly within their rights, as there is absolutely nothing in the Treaty of Paris to pre vent their passage as merchantmen
and their subsequent conversion into cruisers. There is no question of a false declaration having been made at Constantinople. It was pointed out that before the war, vessels of the vol unteer fleet, carrying arms, ammuni tion and soldiers, passed without a shadow of a question being raised.

NOT ACTING WITH BRAVERY.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
BERLIN, July 19.—The Foreign Of fice denies the report, circulated by a news agency in the United States, that Great Britain has informed Germany that she is sending a squadron to check Russian irregularities in the Red Sea. Russia has not yet answered the German protest against the seizure
of the mails of the Prinz Heinrich
by the Smolensk, but the Foreign Office confidently expects a disavowal of the action of the commander of the Smolensk.

The Foreign Office informs the As sociated Press that the seizure of mails included English and Italian bags. It points out that the diplomatic situa tion created by the seizures are not adapted for common treatment by Ger many and England, since the acts of Russian vessels toward each country is too difficult.

Germany is conducting her case in dependently of Great Britain. The officials say that much less excitement prevails in the country than when Great Britain seized two German ves sels during the Boer war. Neverthe less, the officials emphasize the state ment that Germany cannot submit to Russia's treatment.

The newspaper refers bitterly to Russia's action, as especially ungrate ful, since Germany allowed her to leave her western frontier unprotected,
in order to send troops and ar tillery against the Japanese.

IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES.
IMPRESSIONS IN RUSSIA.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
ST. PETERSBURG, July 19, 4:35
p.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The first impression in diplomatic circles here
that the action of the Russian volun teer fleet vessels in stopping neutral ships in the Red Sea to search for contraband of war would not give rise
to complications is being superseded
by the impression which there is ab solutely no truth in the story circulated
in the United States by a news agency,
that Great Britain had informed Ger many of the dispatch of a British fleet to Alexandria, with the intention of checking Russian irregularities in the Red Sea.

The Foreign Office also says there is no foundation for the belief expressed in the dispatch from Malta to the Daily Express of London, this morning, that the British Mediterranean squadron's departure from Malta might be con nected with the presence of the Rus sian volunteer fleet vessels in the Red Sea. It was added at the Foreign Of fice that the movements of the British Mediterranean squadron are in no way influenced by the recent incidents in the Red Sea.

The Admiralty further asserts that the Mediterranean squadron is on its way to Alexandria in accordance with arrangements made prior to the recent incidents in the Red Sea. No com munications on this subject has been sent to Germany.

BRITISH CABINET DELIBERATES.
SITUATION CONSIDERED GRAVE.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
LONDON, July 19.—[By Atlantic Cable.] In British circles the recent seizures and overhauling of British ships in the Red Sea by the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Smolensk and St. Petersburg are regarded as very grave international incidents. The seizure of the Peninsular and Oriental steamship Malacca by the St. Peters burg, and her arrival in the Suez canal as a prize on her way to Liban, the Baltic, has come as a climax, and the Cabinet today is con sidering the course to pursue.

The British law officers acknowl edge the right of the Russians to become the subject of important dip lomatic communications.

The right of a belligerent to halt neutral vessels on the high seas, to ascertain if they have contraband on board, is not questioned, but the right
to detain them, even for a few hours,
may be held to render the belligerent liable to damage.

NEWSPAPERS REJOICING.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—With out discussing in any way the inter national questions involved, the newspapers here are all rejoicing
over the exploits of the volunteer fleet steamers in the Red Sea. The Novor Vremya says the work that they are doing indicates the wisdom of estab lishing the fleet, which was begun by national subscription when the coun try was too impoverished to build the vessels after the Russo-Japanese war.
It was the pioneer subsidized line of auxiliary cruisers which most coun tries have since imitated.

The Novor Vremya adds that there is plenty of scope for the fleet in European, Atlantic and Pacific waters.
By threatening to deprive the Japane se of arms and munitions it can compel the detachment of part of the Japanese fleet. This is why the ap pearance of the volunteer fleet in the Red Sea is hailed with so much satis faction.

Besides the Smolensk, St. Peters burg and Orel, the latter now being sited out as a hospital ship, only the Kherson, Saratoff and Moskva have a speed of 19 to 20 knots. The other eleven vessels of the fleet regis ter about thirteen knots. Some of the recently purchased trans-Atlantic liners might, however, be outfitted as commerce-destroyers, and six weeks ago the Associated Press was in formed that such was the purpose of the Admiralty.

VESSEL TAKEN BY JAPS.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
SHANGHAI, July 19.—[By Asiatic
Cable.] The British steamer Lien
Shing, which arrived here from Wei-Hai-Wei today, reports that she was signalled by the steamer Ping Ping (owned by the Chinese Engi neering and Mining Company, of Shanghai), whose commander asked the Lien Shing to advise the owners of the Ping Ping that the ship, and cargo had been captured by the Japane se cruiser Hong Kong, and that the vessel was proceeding to Japan with a prize crew on board. The news of the capture of the Ping Ping was com municated to the British Admiralty, whose squadron is anchored in Yang Ching bay.

THE MALACCA AT SUEZ.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
SUEZ, July 19.—The Peninsular and Oriental steamer Malacca, captured
by the Russian volunteer fleet steamer
St. Petersburg in the Red Sea, while bound from Antwerp for Japan, en tered the canal today on her way to Liban, on the Baltic. The company's agent attempted to board the vessel,
but the Russian commander refused his admission. The vessel is now in command of the Russian naval of ficers, and carries a prize crew from the volunteer fleet steamer St. Peters burg. The Malacca will pass through the canal.

NEWS OF FIGHTING.
HARD WORK NEAR TONGSCHU.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
CHICAGO, July 19.—A special to the Daily News from Newchwang says:
"Hard fighting has been going on for several days in the neighborhood of Tongschu, eighty miles east of Ta Tche Kiao. It is reported that the Russians' loss in last night's engage ment was 2,100 and the Japanese loss 1,200. The Japanese also have been in active contact with the Russians east of Hailcheng, where there have been many minor actions."

"All along Gen. Kourouptkin's front and flank, the Japanese are moving in position to the general attack is being postponed until supplies and re inforcements come to the front. Pro gress along the muddy roads and mountain passes is slow."

BATTLE AT MOTIEN PASS.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
TOKIO, July 19, 5 p.m.—The Rus sians have been victorious at Motien Pass.

DEMOCRATS APPEAL
FOR REPUBLICAN AID.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Mail says:
"The gold standard will not be beyond the possibility of a dis astrous attack, so long as there is a formidable number of persons in the country who are hostile to it. There is no way of tying their hands, and, indeed, it is the genius of our institutions that popular opinion should work out through them. That is the weakness of the plaint made in today's Times of this city, that Republicans are believed to have been nursing an issue."

"At last it has dawned on this ardent Parker organ that, despite the claims of his friends, the gold standard was not 'firmly and irrevocably established' by the telegram of its candidate. The Democrats would have it assured otherwise. They would have it placed in some mys terious manner beyond the reach of the radicals among their brethren.
In short, they would have the Republican party save them from them selves. Some of the Democrats are now inviting public confidence on the astounding plea, that, even if Parker won, the Senate would be Republican for several years yet, and could be relied upon to block any mischievous. They will not see that their party itself, with the record of 1896 and 1900 behind it, in the only organized danger to the gold standard. To remove that danger, the party should have put itself right, once for all, on the question."

"The opportunity was given to the Democracy at St. Louis, and it thrust it aside by a committee vote of 25 to 15. The vote rejecting the gold-standard plank and the unanimous indorsement it got in full convention had a significance that cannot be minimized."

complete, and unless some overtures are made at once, the vote of New York County will be merely formal.

It is true no invitation has been sent from Roosevelt to the Tammany leader, but that can hardly be done while Murphy still remains sulking outside the Parker tent, as irreconcilable as ever. In the last few days, the protests of the Tammany leaders against the elevation of McCarrren have been multiplying at Exopus. The telephone has been busy, and Ex-Senator Hill, who was within sight of Exopus today, but passed by on the other side of the Hudson, is believed to have made it evident that he is far from enjoying a peaceful retreat at Wolfert's Roost, away from the seat of actual activity at Exopus.

"STACKED" AGAINST TAGGART.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Tom Taggart of Indiana arrives here today, he is expected on an early morning train—he will find little in the situation to encourage his candidacy for chairman of the Democratic National Committee. His friend and fellow-Hoosier, John W. Kern, will let him know without delay that the cards have been "stacked" against him, and that by such experienced political "short-cuts" as those of Arthur Hays Sulzberger and David B. Hill of New York. After that he will rest with Taggart whether he shall take a hand in the game, making good his reputation as a man of daring, or quietly withdraw from the contest in which all present indications point to his defeat.

Hill and Gorman spent the great part of today in close conference in Hill's rooms in the Hoffman Hotel. Occasionally they were interrupted by a visitor. Daniel J. Campana of Michigan, who arrived too late for Monday night's conference, stayed for awhile, chatting with the two big "medicine men" of the reorganized and un-branched Democracy. Other callers were John R. McLean of Ohio, Norman E. Mack, national committeeman for this State, and Henry G. Davis, the old, but chipper candidate for Vice-President. None of these men stayed long enough to disturb seriously what evidently was a most important conversation between the two big leaders.

Persons occupying chairs in the hotel lobby, were Kern of Indiana and Senator Joe Bailey of Texas.

"Why aren't you upstairs?" correspondents inquired of Kern.

"Perhaps we haven't been invited," Taggart's friend replied.

It was plain the Indiana man was not in the best humor. To the question whether failure to elect Taggart chairman of the National Committee would affect Democratic chances in Indiana, he replied: "I don't care to answer that question. If I said yes it might be construed as a threat, and if I were to say no, it would make no difference. I might be stating something not strictly true."

Kern insisted that Taggart was the man to head the National Committee, and expressed the hope that the committee, when it meets in this city next Tuesday, will take that view.

That was what he said for public consumption. Privately, he hardly has any expectation now that Indiana will be honored with the chairmanship. He knows a decision will be made not by members of the National Committee, but by four or five Eastern leaders, who are setting in this affair as the representatives of Judge Parker. These, as Kern has reason to know, are opposed to Taggart or any other Western man for chairman.

After Gorman had quelled Hill's fears tonight, the Wolfert's Rooster, with a frankness unusual to him and therefore suspicious, admitted to reporters that he had tried hard all day to persuade Senator Gorman to see the chairmanship. His efforts, he said, had not been successful; at least, Senator Gorman had not yet considered the refusal of the office. The chairmanship was still an open question.

A critical friend of Hill, when this was repeated to him, a few minutes later, said: "That settles it; I am convinced it is all over, and that Gorman will be chairman."

BETTER STOP POUNDING BRYAN.
SENATOR CULBERSON ADVISES.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Culbertson of Texas was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, last night, but was not invited to attend the conference at the Hoffman House to discuss the political outlook. Senator Culbertson, then, whom Judge Parker had so many loyal supporters in the convention, says:

"My opinion of the criticisms which the Democratic press of the East are heaping upon Bryan and his friends for their part in the St. Louis convention is that they are unwarranted."

NONE BETTER THAN BARD.
Senator Hear Pays Exceptional Compliment to California's Splendid Senator.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] United States Senator George F. Hoar of Massachusetts, whose fame is so wide that he needs no introduction anywhere in the civilized world, speaking of Senator Bard, said to the California Senator this personal tribute:

"There is no member of the Senate who has more absolutely the respect of every one of his associates than Senator Bard. There is no one who has greater influence with them than he has. He is a thoroughly upright and honest gentleman, wise and far-sighted, fully acquainted with the interests of California, independent, and likely to be found always on the side of righteousness, which exalts a nation, and of large and brave policies which make a nation strong and happy."

are not conducive to the perfect and complete harmony which should prevail in the party, if we are to make sure of success. Better cease pounding Bryan.

"I do not hesitate to say that it was at that time possible to have adopted a gold-standard platform at St. Louis. I will go further and say that if such a platform had been adopted delegates from several Southern and Western States who were instructed for Judge Parker, would, by such action on part of the convention, have considered themselves absolved from instructions, having been instructed, upon warrant, in the Albany platform that the money issued was to be dropped.

NO BUNCO GAME BY TAMMANY.
PAT MCCARRREN NOT A STOOL PIGEON FOR THE TIGER.
Allegation that the New York Machine is Trying to Steal Parker's "Works" Pronounced Ridiculous. Reasons for War to the Knife in the Empire State.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is the height of the ridiculous to say, as some Western Democrats ignorant of the situation are saying, that Tammany Hall is using Race-Track Pat McCarrren for a tool to force Parker into line for all the issues Tammany stands for, McCarrren working secretly to "deliver the goods" to the organization when Parker is elected and cannot escape. The situation in a nutshell is this:

At the last municipal election, Tammany Hall, unable to make terms with McLaughlin, the aged Democratic boss who had for years been the head of the Democracy of Kings county, took McCarrren up as the proper man to smash McLaughlin and establish Tammany firmly "across the bridge." The traction companies were enormously to the McCarrren campaign fund. McCarrren was given the benefit of all this prestige, and Kings county went Democratic in the face of 80,000 majority for Low two years before.

KINGS COUNTY PATRONAGE.
McCarrren was given the distribution of Kings county patronage, and Haggerty will be named police commissioner at his suggestion. Tammany Hall, or rather McLaughlin personally, promised the Brooklyn citizens in many speeches that if he were elected Mayor vice would not be tolerated. Haggerty, like most Tammany politicians, did not take the promise seriously, and started to run the city "wide open."

WHERE HILL BUTTED IN.
Then came Hill's campaign for the nomination of Parker. Hill is honestly hated by Tammany for his constant war on that organization, not with any high motive, but ever with the idea in view of pulling down the New York City machine and making himself a dictator in New York State politics. Hill's only hope of dominating the State convention was to capture the Kings county organization. McCarrren was politically ambitious and agreed to betray Tammany Hall and give him control of the New York delegation to St. Louis, in return for Hill's upstaging influence of make McCarrren dictator in New York City.

MCCARRREN'S MEN OUSTED.
McCarrren betrayed Tammany, and then Murphy had a chance to make a play of "high moral motive" by removing Haggerty as police commissioner. Nearly all of the men appointed as officers through McCarrren's suggestion have since been removed, and Tammany Hall today is in control of nearly all the offices in Kings county.

HATRED FOR "TEDDY."
Tammany's hatred for McCarrren and Hill is only less than its hatred for President Roosevelt, but on entirely different grounds. The only really honest efforts ever made to expose the mammoth corruption of the Tammany organization and its league with vice was made by Theodore Roosevelt, when he was police commissioner under Mayor Strong. Tammany would rather support the devil himself for President than Roosevelt, for the latter as Police Commissioner had the gamblers, corrupt police and vicious elements of the city on the run, and came near to disrupting Tammany society.

WHY TAMMANY SULKS.
Tammany sulks because it has no plan in its organization for any man who betrays it, and especially when the betrayal is made into the hands of an arch enemy like Hill. The corruption elements in New York politics find no fault with either Hill, McCarrren or Murphy. It is a matter of total indifference which survives in the war of the survival of the strongest and to control the patronage which Parker would have to distribute in the event of his election. Tammany will swing into line for Parker just as soon as Judge Parker gets into line with Tammany, or if he succeeds in deceiving the organization through Hill's tutelage. Tammany will either support Parker, or rebuke him by staying away from the polls.

YESTERDAY WITH PARKER.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ESOPUS, July 19.—United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Maryland, who has been asked to become chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was invited by Judge Parker to come to Roosevelt tomorrow with former Senator Davis, the Vice-Presidential candidate, and until late this afternoon it was taken for granted that he would come. The following dispatch from him, dated New York, was given out here at a late hour:

"Regret that it will be impossible for me to accompany Senator Davis tomorrow. Will afford me pleasure later on."

The heat today was intense again.

THE VERY LATEST. WAR NEWS AFTER MIDNIGHT.

TOKIO, July 20, 10 a. m.—(By Asiatic Cable.) The armored cruisers Russia, Rurik and Gromobol of the Russian "Vladivostok" squadron, passed through the Tatar Strait into the Pacific Ocean today.

OKU'S REINFORCEMENTS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, July 20.—The Daily Chronicle this morning prints a dispatch from its Yankow correspondent, under date of July 19, saying that the reinforcements for which Gen. Oku has been waiting are now disembarking under the protection of seven Japanese cruisers.

JAPS' NEW MOVEMENTS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, July 20, 2:57 a. m.—As an outcome of Lieut. Gen. Count Keller's engagement at Motien Pass, the military experts are convinced that there has been a rearrangement of the Japanese forces and a change in the Japanese plans in favor of a flanking movement on Liao Yang, rather than a direct movement on Ta Tche Kiao. This change, coinciding with the arrival of Field Marshal Oyama, leads the experts to attribute the change of plan to the new commander-in-chief. Whoever is responsible, it is admitted that the Japanese are showing an appreciation of the present aspect of the campaign. Hitherto Gen. Kuroki, Nohku and Oku, and to induce them to expend their greatest energy where it would do the least harm.

The center of interest has again been transferred to Liao Yang, and the Russians are able at this juncture to regard the situation with proper equanimity. The Liao Yang position is of such strength that Kuroki's advance would be rather welcomed by Gen. Kuroki. It is probable that Kuroki ordered Keller's attack, with the view of drawing the Japanese just as he sent Gen. Stakelburg to draw them up from the south.

The developments of the campaign in the near future are bound to be greatly influenced by a new factor, the insurance of the vegetation, following the few days' rain, and by the rains themselves, which are due any day. The tall grass, effectually concealing the enemy, render the prospect of an advance positions, and the siege will drag on for a long time, and Gen. Kondratieff is adding to the fortifications of Port Arthur, making the stronger daily. On all points considered impossible to fortify, emplacements have now been constructed, and guns of both large and small caliber have been mounted. The cooperation of the generals has made Port Arthur an impenetrable fortress.

POPE AFTER MORGAN.
Would Like to have Returned Gown Taken from Ascoli Cathedral.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, July 19.—It is stated in a special dispatch from Rome, says the London Correspondent of the Herald, that the Pope has commissioned Cardinal Vanutelli, who is about to visit Ireland, to try to obtain from P. Pierpont Morgan the priceless ancient cope which was stolen in 1902 from the Cathedral of Ascoli.

The cope mysteriously disappeared while repairs were being made to the cathedral, and though the government took measures for its recovery, they were unsuccessful. It now transpires that the cope was sold to Morgan, who has loaned it to the South Kensington Museum, where it is at present on view. The cope is a beautiful embroidered piece of work, done in France in the thirteenth century. It was presented to Ascoli Cathedral by Nicholas IV. The entire ground is of gold thread, on which are depicted the figures of saints and religious subjects. The museum authorities believe that the cope is of English, not French, workmanship.

JUNK OF PORT ARTHUR NEWS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHEFOO, July 19, 9 p. m.—A junk with eight Russians and fifty Chinese on board arrived here this afternoon, five days from Port Arthur. The Russians refused to talk, but the Chinese said, July 11, the Japanese captured the junk with 4000 men, one of the eastern forts near Port Arthur. Before reinforcements arrived, the Russians cut off the 4000 troops in the fort, and exploded mines which resulted in the killing of every Japanese soldier there.

The Chinese report also that the night before they left Port Arthur, a Russian torpedo boat sunk a merchant ship near Port Arthur, mistaking her for a Japanese transport. Many Chinese on board the merchantman were drowned, but the white crew of the steamer and a number of her Chinese passengers were rescued by the Russians. If this story is true, the steamer in question probably is the Hipsang, belonging to the Indo-Chinese Navigation Company, which yesterday was forty-eight hours overdue from Newchang, and which was reported to have struck a mine. The local agent of the Hipsang says he believes the steamer to have been lost.

MUKDEN, July 19.—A letter received here from Port Arthur showed that the besieged have implicit confidence in the ability of Lieut. Gen. Storsel of Chicago, who is commanding the expedition in Babylonia. This city had for many years been the object of search by orientalist. It is mentioned in the code of Hammurabi, an early king of Babylonia, which documents of the University of Chicago excavated recently. Prof. Robert F. Harper, director of the expedition.

He has just received the news in a telegram from Prof. R. F. Harper, field director of the expedition, who poet of an advance to the valley of the Liao River too hazardous, and therefore it has probably been abandoned by the Japanese. This explains the delay in the occupation of Yankow.

DASHKIN DASHED IN.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

TA TCHIE KIAO, July 19.—Capt. Dashkin, with a company of Cossacks, struck the Japanese at Tsinshing July 16. Unseen, the company occupied a peak overlooking the Japanese camp, from which they drove the Japanese with a plunging fire. The Japanese lost one officer and many men were seen to fall. During the retreat the Japanese were reinforced by two companies, but these were driven off by the Russian fire. The village without the loss of a man.

CLAIMS AGAINST RUSSIA.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—In addition to the claim of the ship stopped by the Smolenak and St. Petersburg, it is not improbable that claims may be made against the Russian government for Port Arthur at the opening of the war, and for those held up in the Red Sea by Admiral Wirov's squadron before the latter returned to the Baltic.

The passage of the Dardanelles by the Smolenak and the St. Petersburg and their conversion into cruisers being accomplished facts, Great Britain does not expect to make a point of their case, except to justify raising the question of the status of the volunteer fleets still in the Black Sea. Moreover, it is considered possible that Japan may have already applied to her ally, one of the signatories of the Treaty of Paris, on the ground that to allow more Russian ships to go out of the Dardanelles for conversion into warships without a protest would constitute a violation of neutrality.

The report that the British Mediterranean squadron is going to Alexandria is not believed to have special significance in this connection. Neither France nor Germany is expected to get excited over the question, but, if presented by Great Britain, it would compel the other signatories to declare their attitude.

VLADIVOSTOK SQUADRON AGAIN.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

TOKIO, July 20, noon.—The Vladivostok squadron has overhauled a Japanese steamer eastward of Tatar Straits. The name of the vessel captured and her fate have not yet been learned.

WAR BULLETINS FROM MANY POINTS.

GEN. KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD. (By Asiatic Cable.)

via Pusan, July 18. (Delayed in Transmission.) More Russian troops were engaged in yesterday's battle at Motien Pass than in previous engagements. There were probably double the number of those who took part in the fight at Yalu River, while opposed to them were only one brigade and one battalion of the Japanese forces. The Russian loss is estimated at 2000. The Japanese casualties aggregated 300. The engagement has conspicuously demonstrated the wonderful efficiency of the Japanese infantry. They proved incomparably the better marksmen, more on the initiative, and they outflanked and out-generaled the Russians on every point.

JAPANESE LOSS 299.

Throughout the voyage Mrs. Crocker was continuously under the care of a physician and nurses, powerful stimulants being used to sustain her until the end of the voyage.

KOENIGSBERG TRIAL.
Defense Would Prove that Russia was Responsible for the Murder of King Alexander of Serbia.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

KOENIGSBERG, July 19.—[By Atlantic Cable.] At today's session of the court which, July 12, began the trial of the seven Social Democrats accused by the German government of smuggling anarchy literature into Russia, the testimony given shows that some of the pamphlets in question appeared to the army, urging the soldiers to make common cause with the people, to disobey the command to fire upon the populace, to shoot into the air and to turn their bayonets against the officers.

The defense, near the close of the session, created a sensation by moving to summon several witnesses, by whom it was proved Russia's responsibility for the murder of King Alexander of Serbia and Premier Stambouloff of Bulgaria, from which it was deduced that the German court was not a civilized state, with a claim to the protection of the German courts. The court took up the matter for consideration and adjourned until tomorrow.

THE GREAT WAR.
sian attempt to retake Motien pass.
July 17, was not productive of a general engagement. The war was marked with serious losses; there were, however, a series of desperate small encounters. The Japanese guarded their position about the pass with a company on outpost. These men stubbornly resisted the Russian advance and waited the arrival of reinforcements.
When these arrived, they joined in the general attack. The outpost detachment stationed at Haimatang held its position all day long. It was largely outnumbered by the enemy and every commissioned and non-commissioned officer was wounded, as was a majority of the men.
The attack on Motien pass began at daybreak in the morning. The Russians engaged the outpost, and the Japanese at once went into action.
The Japanese artillery posted on the heights to the northwest of Wufengshan opened on the enemy and the Japanese outposts retired gradually.
The Russian cavalry galloped forward and deployed along the ridge to the west of the pass. Two hours later, at 5 o'clock, the entire Japanese line was engaged. The Russians were constantly receiving reinforcements,
and finally they had four regiments in action. They outnumbered the Japanese 2 to 1. The Russian cavalry endeavored to envelop the Japanese left. At this point, the Japanese occupied the summit of Motien Mountain, and they resisted desperately the attack of the Russians. The Russian troops were finally repulsed. When the Russians finally retreated, they were pursued by the entire Japanese line. Seven battalions of the enemy made a halt on the heights of Tawan and with four guns checked
the Japanese pursuit.
THREE TO ONE.
One company of Japanese soldiers reconnoitered from Hsialukang, and encountered and engaged three battalions of Russians. It fought until reinforced by four more companies, and the Russians were repulsed. The Japanese seized and held the heights east of Mukumena.
The attack on Haimatang began at 5 o'clock in the morning. A battalion of Russian infantry and a squadron of cavalry assaulted the Japanese company on outpost there. The Russians received reinforcements until they were a regiment strong. The Japanese resisted doggedly. At 4 o'clock the Russian cavalry was reinforced by a company of infantry and a company of engineers, and the Russians were repulsed.
In his report on the fighting, Gen.
Kuraki says that the Russians numbered about two divisions, and were formed of parts of the Third and Sixth Siberian Sharpshooters, the Ninth and another infantry division.
The Japanese lost four officers and 35 men and 15 officers and 241 men wounded. The Japanese party in the Second Division, Gen. Kuraki mentions, but he does not enumerate
the trophies captured. He estimates the Russian losses as exceeding his own.

place this morning to the east between the forces of Lieut.-Gen. Count Keller and Gen. Kuraki. It is said also that an engagement began also simultaneously at Ta Tche Kiao, from which the Japanese for some days had been six miles distant.

The Red Cross Hospital at Ta Tche

ticipation of fighting. Consequently there was a large call for Red Cross
trains to proceed to Ta Tche Kiao.
The activity of the Japanese in the northwest caused a wider dispersion of troops, and the consequent movement of the center of strength a little farther north in order to meet the Japanese demonstrations.
A Cossack report of an examinashows that the Japanese troops are suffering from dysentery, which is now at its worst stage.

The Chinese accuse the Japanese of organizing Chinese bandits and report that the bandits have attacked
natives in the employ of the Russians.
A native villager of Hungpoly,
four miles to the eastward, describes the Japanese as being very ferocious and as having the good will of the people, though they are not paying the exorbitant prices for produce
which are paid by the Russians.
The information received here
indicates that the siege of Port Arthur is being more closely pressed, and there are most extraordinary rumors of losses on both sides.
No foreign correspondent has yet witnessed even the simplest military operation, but yesterday the correspondents were notified that they may go to Ta Tche Kiao.
On account of the Japanese prepa-

Certainly the disposition of naval vessels in the last two days has put the British in position to effectively police the Suez canal and Red Sea. The Mediterranean squadron is now at Alexandria. Two cruisers detached from that squadron have probably arrived at Port Said. The Terrible is at Suez, the other end of the canal under orders to remain there. The Porpoise has been summoned to Aden, at the other end of the Red Sea.

Reports at Triennial Review of Supreme Court at Detroit show much progress.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
DETROIT, July 19.—Seventy-five delegates, representing 150,000 people in all parts of the country, were present with their supreme officers today when the triennial review of the Supreme Court, Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, was called to order. Re-adjournment of the order is the most important business that will come before them during the three-day session. After welcoming addresses and responses, Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister, of Detroit, the Supreme Commander, made her report, which discussed the rate question at length. She stated that the order has in its emergency funds $356,874, which would be approximately $7 per member.
Mrs. Hollister reported that the per capita cost of expenses of management for order duties the past term was the lowest in the history of the order.
Miss Bella M. West, the Supreme Record Keeper, in her report, said the membership of the order is 150,000, and the total certificates in force $50,851,443.
The following officers were elected today: Supreme Commander, Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister; Supreme Recorder, Mrs. Bella M. West; Supreme Treasurer, Mrs. C. V. Hepper; Supreme Chaplain, Mrs. Minnie W. Aydelotte, Oakland, Cal.

Earl Grey Complains of Discrepancy in Rates in Favor of New York and Offers Remedy.
LONDON, July 19.—(By Atlantic Cable.) In the House of Lords this afternoon Earl Grey, Director of the British South African Company, brought up the question of American goods shipped from New York to South Africa was steadily increasing. The system had given an immense stimulus to American trade, to the detriment of British trade. It is an advantage to the British shipper to send goods to South Africa by way of New York.
The Earl strongly condemned the rebate system and urged the government to cooperate with the various colonial governments with the object of forming an independent shipping combination which would secure to British shippers the advantage now enjoyed by Americans. Lord Wolseley, representing the Board of Trade, said he would be glad to discuss the matter with Earl Grey and see what could be done.

Work Tied Up in New York by Lock-out.

TRAVELING MEN HELD UP.

RETURN TO WORK IN BROOKLYN.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Probably from one-half to two-thirds of the beef butchers who went on strike recently in Brooklyn were reported to have returned to work today on an agreement to accept a ten-hour day at wages of $14 a week. Less than 200 men were on strike in Brooklyn.

Temporary relief in the beef situation came today with the beginning of the Jewish Feast of Ab. During this feast, which continues for nine days, all the orthodox Hebrews will abstain from meat and dairy products.

Quiet prevailed in the packing-house centers today, and with few exceptions business was practically at a standstill.

BLOCKADED BY PICKETS.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) July 19.—Although President Willis of the butchers' union promised Gov. Van Sant that the pickets about the entrance to the Swift plant would be removed, the plant was effectively blocked today when the office force arrived for work. A determination seemed to prevail to keep everybody out but the officials of the company and the women stenographers.

NO CHANGE AT ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, July 19.—Representatives of the East St. Louis packing-houses, who secured an injunction against the striking union butchers and meat cutters, preventing them from interfering with the non-union men employed to take their places, were today served with the legal five days' notice to discontinue the injunction by attorneys employed by the strikers. There is no change in the strike situation.

DESERT STRIKERS HANKER.

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) July 19.—There were more desertions from the ranks of the striking packing-house employees today than at any time since the strike was called. Meat prices were again advanced today.

SPEND TOO MUCH COIN.

Official of the Elks' Order Criticizes Members of Turning in Big Bills.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

CINCINNATI (O.) July 19.—The business sessions of the "Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks" began today. The public session was addressed by Exalted Ruler August of the Cincinnati Lodge; Mayor Fleischmann and Gov. Herrick, with a response by Grand Exalted Ruler Joseph T. Panning of Indianapolis.

In the balloting for officers the contest between what is known as the Administration and the Field was spirited. The Grand Treasurer H. Needs, in his report, criticized the financial system of the order. He suggested that the various committees should be called together by the Grand Exalted Ruler only, and that he should be held responsible for the money coming from such meetings.

He referred to a banquet tendered the Grand Exalted Ruler by New York Lodge, No. 1, February 6. On that occasion fourteen members of the grand officers attended the meeting. He turned in bills amounting to $1800. He also criticized the statement of individual expenses of those who attended the Baltimore reunion. He thought the Grand Lodge should get down to a business basis.

RUSH TO ROEBUCK CONTINUES.

OMAHA (Neb.) July 19.—The rush to register for homestead lands on the Roebuck reservation continued today and reports indicate that at the land office in Bonesteel, Fairfax and Yankton will be registered an average of six thousand persons daily until July 25, when the time for registration expires. Nearly a thousand persons were left at the Omaha depot when the regular train on the Northern Pacific left for Bonesteel and Fairfax early today, and another section was sent out to carry those unable to secure accommodations on the regular train.

MACABEES MEET AT DETROIT.

DETROIT (Mich.) July 19.—With the readjustment of the rates as the most important business for consideration, the triennial meeting of the Supreme Tent of the Knights of Macabees of the World opened here today. Supreme Commander D. H. Markey in his annual report stated that the membership of the order at the close of his three years' term was 32,335, a net gain during the three years of 15,708. The report of Supreme Commander Atkin showed that there have been paid during the past term 518 death claims, amounting to $7,357,431.

ENGINEER AND FIREMAN KILLED.

STANWOOD (Iowa) July 19.—The Atlantic express, eastbound, on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, ran into an open switch and the engine and four cars left the track. Engineer J. J. Fletcher and Fireman E. H. Carter were killed and four persons seriously injured. The danger signal was set, but the engineer seemingly lost his head. The engine struck the power-house, completely wrecking it, and injuring the operator.

CARPENTER WORK TIED UP.

LOCKOUT IN NEW YORK.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

NEW YORK, July 19.—All carpenters employed by the Master Carpenters' Association have been locked out by order of the board of governors of the Building Trades Employers' Association. The lockout ties up carpenter work on every large building in the borough and involves between six and six thousand men.

This is the first time since the acceptance several months ago of the arbitration agreement of the Building Trades Employers' Association that there has been a general lockout of any kind. The carpenters locked out belong to the Brotherhood of Carpenters, and the trouble is owing to the violation of the arbitration agreement by carpenters striking on a contract held by one firm holding membership in the Master Carpenters' Association.

Twelve men struck on the building about six weeks ago. The men were ordered to return to work, pending a settlement, and did so, but more men were required as the work progressed, and there was more friction, which ended in another strike. The men were ordered to return to work a second time, but only the twelve men originally struck returned to work. The board of governors of the employers' association met again and gave the carpenters a fixed time on which to return. The carpenters went to work three hours after the time set, but the lockout order was enforced, much to their astonishment.

LUMBER PLANT CLOSED DOWN.

STRIKE IN SISKIYOU COUNTY.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

REDDING, July 19.—The entire plant of the McClellan Lumber Company, at McClellan, Siskiyou county, the largest lumber plant in the State, is tied up by a strike. About 180 men are affected. Ordinarily laborers here are receiving $2 for eleven hours' work. They ask that the hours be cut to ten or the pay increased to $2.35. Last year they received $1.25. This spring, at the opening of the plant, the company cut wages in accordance with the terms of a combine of nearly all the lumbermen of Northern California. The discontent among the men at McClellan ever since. Sunday night the men at the new mill, nearly all of whom are Italians, refused to receive logs unless they were assured that their demand would be granted. The foreman told the superintendent of their ultimatum, and that official ordered him to shut down the mill. The old mill was run Sunday night, but was closed Monday morning, on a demand made similar to the one of the night before at the new mill. During Monday the packing-house would be closed, but the men refused to work. They are said to all be in accord with the strike. As yet, there are no indications of violence.

BREWERY WORKERS STRIKE.

TROUBLE AT SAN FRANCISCO.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Over three hundred union brewers, employed in twenty-two breweries, struck today for an advance of wages from $20 to $22 a week. The men directly affected are employed inside the various establishments, the drivers and other outside men not having taken action. The secretary of the Brewers' Protective Association says that the strikers are not skilled workmen and can readily be replaced.

There is a big supply of beer on hand, the trouble having been reported and the breweries possibly may shut down. The strike is not unlikely to extend to other cities in the State.

The strikers have been notified that unless they return to work tomorrow the breweries will be declared open shops.

INDEPENDENCE MURDERS.

DIRECT INFORMATION FILED.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

CRIPPLE CREEK (Colo.) July 19.—Sheriff Edward Bell said today that direct information charging Pearl Skelton, the miner arrested in Pueblo two weeks ago, with the Independence depot murders, would be filed today. John Conway and Edward Boyd, after examination before the board of inquiry today, were turned over to military with a recommendation that they should be deported. Over 200 pounds of ore, valued at $600, was found in the cellar of a house where the men were arrested. They had an engine and crusher seized and were preparing to treat the rock. Boyd claimed he purchased the ore from the Conways. Efforts are being made by the mine owners to stop the "high grading" ore stealing. It is claimed that within the past year over half a million dollars' worth of ore has been lost in this way.

PLENTY OF MACHINISTS.

IRELAND'S TALK TO CONTRARY.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

TOPEKA (Kan.) July 19.—A. E. Ireland, agent of the American Federation of Labor, and one of the leaders of the Santa Fe machinists in their strike, has established headquarters in Topeka. Ireland reports everything in good shape for the strikers all over the Santa Fe system. He says that when business picks up in the fall the Santa Fe will be compelled to treat with the machinists so as to get competent men. On the other hand, the officials of the road state that they have plenty of good machinists, and that they will not negotiate with the union.

Newburg Trolley Strike Settled.

NEW YORK, July 19.—A settlement has been reached in the strike which tied up the trolley lines of Newburg, N. Y., and vicinity for several days. After a day of much disorder a committee of strikers and citizens conferred with the company's officials, who agreed to recognize the union, take the strikers back, and submit their differences to arbitration. The service will be resumed today.

Miners Appeal to Red Cross.

DENVER, July 19.—The Ways and Means Committee of the Western Federation of Miners has appealed to the Red Cross Society to take charge of the distribution of funds and the general relief work for families of deported miners in the Cripple Creek district.

Peterson Silk Weavers Strike.

PATERSON (N.J.) July 19.—The weavers employed by Johnson, Cowdin & Co., silk manufacturers, struck today because they refused a 10 per cent reduction in wages. It is said the strikers and winders will go out in sympathy. Five hundred employees are involved.

BARRETT IN PANAMA.

COLON, July 19.—John Barrett, Minister to Panama, and President E. H. Carter were here today on the steamer Segurita. The Minister was met by Joseph W. Lewis, secretary of the American legation at Panama, and a delegation of Panamanians, whose spokesman was Porfirio Melendez, civil and military governor of Colon. Minister Barrett briefly thanked Gen. Melendez for the welcome accorded him, and then left for the Hotel Panama. Barrett is expected to make a more complete report, pending which no action will be taken.

NO WORRYING OF THE BANKS.

Secretary Shaw Contemplating no Drafts.

Appropriations Due have All Been Provided for.

Lieut. Haight's Resignation.
Marshal for Nevada.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although the working balance of the treasury has dropped to about $35,000,000 and there has been a law that it must not drop below $50,000,000, it is said to be the intention of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw not to make any draft for the present on the government funds now in the national banks. The deposits now amount to $100,000,000 at the present time. Had the Secretary of the Treasury known at the time he made his last call upon the banks for funds, that the income of the treasury for this month would be so far below the expenditures—the deficit now is about $18,000,000—he undoubtedly would have made the call larger by about $15,000,000.

To make a call upon the banks at this time merely for the sake of bringing the working balance up to the standard set by precedent might create an impression wholly unwarranted by the situation. The available cash balance of the treasury, which includes money on deposit with banks, is $152,000,000. This money is all really available at any time. The officials of the treasury, however, say that the deficit of $18,000,000 for the first nineteen days of this month is nothing sensational. It readily is explained by the fact that many appropriations made at the last session of Congress became immediately available and were drawn from the treasury in the first days of the month.

This drain upon the treasury is over, and if the customs and internal revenue receipts increase as they are expected to do, the deficit will disappear.

MINERS ENTITLED TO PATENT.

REDDING, July 19.—The General Land Office at Washington has just handed down a decision sustaining the ruling of the Redding Land Office that E. P. Sherk, J. O. Fletcher and Frank Large are entitled to fourteen acres of land in the center of the town of Harrison Gulch, a mining camp of 2000 population, located fifty-two miles southwest of this city.

Sherk and his partners sought a mineral patent. People owning the many business houses and dwellings on the land sought to have a townsite patent issued to them instead. The local land office decided after a lengthy hearing marked by bitterest feeling that the miners were entitled to the patent. The case will be further appealed.

LORD DUNDONALD'S CASE.

LONDON, July 19.—In the House of Commons today David Lloyd-George (Welsh Nationalist) moved an adjournment of the House to call attention to "Lord Dundonald's participation in political agitation against the government of Canada," while still an officer in the British army. The Secretary of State, Lord Forster, on behalf of the government, deprecated the raising of the question, especially as the Canadian government had not mentioned the subject and was well able to take care of itself. He declined to express an opinion on the matter until Lord Dundonald, who had been requested to return home, had been heard in his own defense.

"PITTSBURGH PHIL" ILL.

NEW YORK, July 19.—George M. Smith, popularly known among his friends as "Pittsburgh Phil," is reported, according to the American, to be seriously ill from lung trouble. He is being treated near Saranac Lake, in the Adirondack Mountains, but little hope is felt for his recovery. Smith accumulated a large fortune in his gold-mining ventures, but was worried some time ago that repression of his emotions, while witnessing races upon which he staked large sums, was destroying his health, and he practically retired.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Walk-Over Concert.

The great success of the concert given at Westlake Park last night by Moore's Fiddle Concert Band, under the auspices of the Walkover Shoe Store, proves that the people know a good thing when they see it. The program was enjoyed by a large crowd, and it is certain that the expense entailed by the shoe firm will more than return in increased sales.

Arrested for Burglary.

Mandel Dominguez, a Mexican, was arrested on Aliso street yesterday while he was in the act of displaying a number of razors and knives to second-hand dealers. Detectives say that Dominguez is a bad one, and they are confident that he is the burglar who entered the store of Wilcox & Rose in Compton about six weeks ago and looted it. Other jobs of this nature are charged against Dominguez.

Y.M.C.A. Building.

At a meeting yesterday of the Building Fund Managers of the Y.M.C.A. it was expressed as the judgment of those present that Architect Benton, who has drawn general plans for the new building, should take a trip East with a view to incorporating in the plans such available new ideas as may be gathered. The plans were examined for the first time yesterday by W. C. Fox, president of the Y.M.C.A. Building.

Catholic Educational Conference.

Very Rev. J. S. Glavin, C.M., D.D., president of St. Vincent's College, presided at the Catholic Educational Conference which has been in session in St. Louis the past week. This is the "educational movement" established by Bishop Conboy during the period that he was rector of the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., and includes all the Catholic colleges and seminaries of the United States.

Summons to Injuries.

J. E. Carlson, the San Pedro tailor, who was injured in a street car accident at San Pedro Sunday afternoon, died at the Sisters Hospital at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his injuries. Carlson fell from a street car and was crushed by the wheels. He was operated on after having been removed to the hospital, but he was so badly injured that he did not recover. The body was sent to San Pedro, where a widow and three children survive him. An inquest will be held by the coroner.

Pocket Improving.

Although the trial of Rose Grammer, who stabbed Harmon Puckett on the night of May 3, was again postponed in the Superior Court yesterday, the victim of the young woman's dagger is improving at the Deaconess Hospital, and he is probably to be out in a few days. Puckett has had two relapses since the stabbing attack on Gila avenue, and his life was despaired of for a time. The cutting was done by Miss Grammer on account of alleged insults over a party-line telephone.

Woodmen's Uniform Rank.

At a regular meeting of the officers of the Second California Regiment, Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, held last night at the Nadeau, there were present: Col. Fred Knowles, Lieut.-Col. J. C. Armstrong, Adj. W. L. M. Galt, Muster Officer R. A. Taylor, Maj. B. O. Nye, of First Battalion, Maj. Ernest Saunders, Second Battalion, Maj. William Schreie, Third Battalion. Appointments will be announced at the next meeting, which is to take place at Hotel Nadeau August 2.

Holmes' Harvest.

Toluca at present is in the midst of the apricot harvest, and while there is a good yield the fruit is running small in size. It is said that there are more campers at Toluca last year than there are residents of the settlement. Many families have gone into camp there for the fruit season. Fruit growers are being delivered to the Los Angeles canneries, although the bulk of the crop will be sun-dried at Toluca.

Horse Unmanageable.

Mrs. W. C. Johnson of Avenue 39 met with a serious accident Sunday evening. While out driving the horse became unmanageable and in attempting to alight from the phantom she stepped into a hole, which caused her to fall, breaking her leg at the thigh. She was removed to her home, where she is suffering from the resulting shock, but Dr. A. F. Speicher, the attending physician, thinks she will recover.

Dropped Dead.

Thomas Gaskill, an old man of 83 years, who has resided at No. 401 Court street for many years, dropped dead yesterday afternoon while ascending the hill to his home. Mr. Gaskill had been downtown on an errand, and was returning when he was stricken. He had no known relatives, but for over a quarter of a century he had lived with Mrs. Lightfoot, the body being buried in Pierce Bros.' undertaking establishment, and the coroner will hold an inquest tomorrow.

Y.M.C.A. Debaters.

A debate under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Congress was held last evening at the association rooms. The question was the one declaring for capital punishment. For the affirmative Frank Grossman and Harry Bird appeared. For the negative the speakers were Lewis Powell and Walter E. Switzer. Of the three judges two decided for the negative and two for the affirmative. The public is warned against impostors who are soliciting without authority.

Feast of St. Vincent de Paul.

Yesterday was the Feast of St. Vincent de Paul, and the members of the Congregation of the mission observed the day with a solemn high mass at St. Vincent's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. E. A. Antill, C.M., was the celebrant; Rev. William Gault, C.M., was the concelebrant, and Rev. Patrick Finney, subdeacon, and Rev. Father Lilley of the college and Rev. Father Landry, C.M., of Whittier were also present in the sanctuary. After the mass there was benediction of the blessed sacrament, and the veneration of the relics of St. Vincent de Paul. These relics will also be exposed for veneration all day Sunday.

M. and M. Association.

At a meeting of the directors of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association yesterday a resolution was adopted endorsing the recommendation of the chief of police to increase the police force and install substations. Requests for indorsement were received from the McKinley House, Children's Home Training Society and the Door of Hope, and committees were appointed to make investigations of the condition and business methods of these institutions before granting the indorsements. This is in accordance with a new rule adopted by the association. Indorsement was given to the home of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, which was recently established on Grand avenue. The Cool women. It is a non-sectarian charitable organization, doing a worthy work.

TOLUCA SAYS "KEEP DRY."
Protest Against Action of the Supervisors.
Dive Keeper's Mother is Robbed in His Own Place.
Temperance People to Ask for a Rerhearing.

Over in the peaceful and Arcadian retreat of Toluca, which lies on the farther side of the Chahuenga Pass, there have been during the past week that have made a decided break in the monotony which sometimes settles on this mountain-sheltered vale.

Most gossip-worthy of these "doings" was the robbery of the mother of a citizen who is furnishing the second sensation by having induced the Board of County Supervisors to grant him a liquor license, despite the protests of his neighbors.

Brown, it is said, conducts a sort of a dance hall in Toluca, much to the chagrin of his neighbors, and, according to their report, several disgraceful affairs have taken place there recently. At a dance given at Brown's place one night last week his own mother was robbed of $20—which was a great breach of even dance-hall etiquette.

When the temperance people learned that Brown was circulating a petition they also set to work, and secured the names of fifty-three taxpayers in the precinct, protesting against the granting of any liquor license.

It appears that on several previous occasions attempts have been made to secure liquor licenses for Toluca, but prompt objection has been raised and the Supervisors have refused the applicants. Toluca has been "dry" except for a few saloons.

When the Tolucans learned yesterday that they were a day too late and the license had been granted, they held a indignation party, and Supervisor Patterson, who represents the district in which Toluca is situated, came in for his share of abuse.

Remarkable Trophies of Malibu Deer Hunters.

There have been many parties of deer hunters as of late, and before September 15 there will be at least as many more, but even at this early date it is safe to award the season's record to the jolly party depicted above alongside the trophies of its success.

BARR PEOPLE ABOVE WATER. GREW TWENTY FEET IN EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

A TREE which grew nearly twenty feet in a year and a half has just gone from the experimental station in Santa Monica Canyon to the World's Fair to show what California can do when in a hurry for a place in the shade.

It holds the champion long distance tree sprouting record of the United States. It is a variety of eucalyptus. A small grove of these trees was planted on a chaggy cliff face of the experimental station where it seemed as though no tree could grow at all.

When this particular tree was about a year and a half old it measured four inches in diameter. They had to pull it up to break the trunk and break the Santa Monica speed ordinance.

After its rag-time career under Abbot Kinney and others, the experimental station is now a successful blooming garden. One of the interesting features of the work is, importing trees from foreign countries and trying them in California soil and climatic conditions.

CUPID IN BOOTS.

M. de Preval Tells How He Came to Give up the Army and Get Married.

[From the French of M. Marchal, in New York Sun.] Dinner was over and M. de Preval and his guests had adjourned to the library. There Regis sat suddenly in the doorway.

"So this is your first day since you were married four months ago? Confess, now, that it has been pretty jolly?"

"It certainly has been," replied the master of the house amiably, "and the fact that you fellows are here is the only consolation I feel for my wife's absence."

"Oh, come, that sounds extremely well for a man who vowed he would never get married. Press up, now, and tell us how you came to do it."

"Willingly," I was married because of my boots."

"H'm! You needn't make such a poor excuse as that," cried one of his friends, comfortably installed on the sofa.

"Thank you," said M. de Preval, promptly sitting on the cushion, "but I'm not making fun. It is the gospel truth."

"I left the army and was married because of my boots. If I had not been here she would tell you it is the truth. But so long as you have asked me, I'll tell you the story. It will last about half an hour."

"About ten months ago I was sent to the garrison at Vesin. It was a deadly place in my estimation, and my superior officer kept going on one leave after another, leaving the men in a commotion."

"I promptly hastened to turn them over to my second lieutenant, and spent most of my time running about among the houses and visiting the neighboring city."

"In a garrison as small as ours there were very little rivalry, and all the men were on terms of good friendship. We were very strict about all matters of dress, but I had no objection to arriving there, that all the men wore enormous, square-toed boots."

It was a poor way to act and I countermanded my order."

"The commandant smiled; his digestion was evidently all right that morning."

"That was my own state of mind when I ordered you under arrest, sir," he said courteously. "Permit me to repeat by the way, you have volunteered for the period of six years to maintain and operate the works."

"He gave me his hand and I retired really touched. Then, recalling it was Saturday, I went to call on Mlle. De B— and he sent her."

"That's the end of the story, gentlemen. Mlle. De B— became Mme. De Preval, and I retired from the army in order to be more entirely with her. So was I not right when I told you that the reason was—boots?"

"Oh, come, that sounds extremely well for a man who vowed he would never get married. Press up, now, and tell us how you came to do it."

"Willingly," I was married because of my boots."

"H'm! You needn't make such a poor excuse as that," cried one of his friends, comfortably installed on the sofa.

WEDNESDAY in the scholarship contest now centers in the second three of the solid six. The first three—Briant, Letwick and Thompson—retain their position in the list, and are quietly waiting for the next big leap. Behind them are the second three—Bristol, Drake and Skidmore—

Just as the contest is now on a new basis, so the struggle is now on a new basis. For the second time in the contest, the names of the contestants are now on a new basis. For the second time in the contest, the names of the contestants are now on a new basis.

There is now less than two hundred points between the first and the last. Each one of the next day's contest will be interesting to see how the names of the contestants will be changed. For the second time in the contest, the names of the contestants are now on a new basis.

(NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.)

HOME PHONES
IN RIVERSIDE.CONTRACT FOR INSTALLATION OF THE NEW SERVICE.

Must Be Completed by First of Next Year—Book-Wherry News Celebrated in Pretty Home County—Madden Returned to Jail a Federal Prisoner.

RIVERSIDE, July 19.—The Home Telephone and Telegraph Company has placed the contract for the installation of the new system in the hands of the Empire Construction Company of Toledo, O. This contract calls for the delivery on the 1st of January, 1905, to the new company of 100 phones, to be installed in the city of Riverside. The local representatives of the company are looking now for a suitable location for their central office, and plan to erect a building for their own use probably somewhere between Seventh and Tenth streets on Orange. The "hello" girls will be compensated by their absence, but the business offices, automatic switchboard and exchange center will be given commodious accommodation.

BECK-WHERRY. Rev. Dr. Taylor performed the ceremony in a pretty home wedding this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Beck on Eighth street, when Miss Edith Beck and John C. Wherry were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. J. Beck. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Taylor, and the wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, best man, maid of honor, bridesmaids, flower girls, ring bearer, and ushers. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and the wedding party was entertained by a sumptuous dinner. The bride wore a white gown with a long train, and the groom wore a dark suit. The wedding party was accompanied to the church by a procession of friends. The ceremony was a simple but beautiful one, and the wedding party was all in good luck.

BACK IN JAIL. E. J. Loran, a Mexican who was convicted of murder on the charge of killing a woman, was back in jail this morning. He was released on bail for a few days, but failed to appear in court, and was therefore re-arrested. He is now being held in the same cell as when he was first arrested. His lawyers are working to get him out of jail, but it is doubtful if they will succeed.

NOTES AND PERSONALS. A break in the canal of the Riverside Power Company has forced the plant to close down, and the city will receive no power from that source for two or three weeks.

Work at the dryers in this valley and throughout the state is at a standstill waiting for the ripening of the peach crop. The apricot season was much shorter than usual. Canary prices for the peach crop are quoted at $2 a ton.

The regular Prohibition Alliance meeting for this month will be held at the home of Mrs. Stella R. Irvine on Walnut street tonight, and will take the form of an informal reception in honor of John S. Brown, the famous temperance lecturer, who is in Riverside this week.

The supervisors have allowed the World's Fair Committee $200 on account of the expense of the irrigation exhibit at St. Louis.

Gene DeMott has the contract for putting in the cement walks and other cement work about the Court-house, has filed bond to the amount of $1000, and will proceed at once with the work, to be completed within forty-five days. J. M. Matlack has been appointed inspector of the work at a salary of $250 per day.

The proposition for the construction of the Hanning-Idyllwild road has been submitted yesterday for his work, and this made the aggregate cost about $2000, while County Supervisor Pearson's figures for a fair estimate of cost is only $2000. The matter will be brought up at the next regular meeting.

Miss S. E. Plimpton, sister of Col. H. A. Plimpton, who has been the guest of her brother's family here for several weeks, has returned to her home in Los Angeles.

Dane Coolidge, famous as a collector and magazine writer, is here on a visit from Mexico, where he has been making a collection of rare birds and animals.

Teacher's contracts for the school year just begun have been signed as follows: Emily A. Martin; Temecula; Mrs. M. E. Turner; Good Hope; A. Light, Little Lake; C. E. Latham, Murietta.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Castro are celebrating the birth of a daughter, Miss Alice Miller, at the New Glenwood.

Capt. A. M. Miller left this morning on a summer outing and rest at Long Beach. He will visit Los Angeles and several Coast resorts before returning.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Edward Samuel Gibson of San Diego and Blanche Harrison of Hemet.

Mrs. Joseph Curtis and Joseph N. Curtis are among yesterday's arrivals from Los Angeles at the spring.

CANNOT FIND THE MURDERER.

COLTON ASSASSIN BELIEVED TO BE HIDDEN BY MEXICANS.

Funeral of Victim of Tragedy Attended by Hundreds of His Fellow-countrymen — A Prospective Quarrel Over His Estate—Prosperous Land Deal.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 19.—This morning the funeral of Pedro Chavez, who was murdered Sunday night at Colton by Clato Agila, alias Avila, occurred from the late residence, being attended by a great number of Mexicans from this section and Riverside. All night long the locality was noisy with the wake festivities, and hundreds of people viewed the remains, as they reposed in an open casket, lighted with wax tapers.

The funeral services were interrupted by a painful exhibition of grief on the part of the little son and daughter of the slain man, who sobbing aloud, threw themselves across the casket, calling on the father to speak to them but none.

The dead man and his son, a child of 13, had been very industrious, and succeeded in getting a bank account of $100. The son worked with his father at the cement works, and regularly handed his money to his father, who kept a joint account with the bank. It is claimed that it was this money which led the new wife to desert Avila for Chavez, and already she has taken steps to secure the money.

New evidence is continually cropping out, proving that Avila had planned the murder days ago. On Friday he made application to his former employer for transportation to El Paso, and it is learned he recently bought the revolver with which the killing was done. He is aided by the Mexicans, who say he is a bad man, responsible for several murders in Mexico, where he formerly served as a mercenary opposite El Paso. At that place he has a wife from whom he had received a letter the day before the killing.

IS IT A GOOD BUY? It is learned that a Los Angeles woman named Mrs. Proberta has a corps of surveyors engaged in laying out a townsite on the desert, twelve miles east of Victorville, which she has named "Apple," and in describing its location to innocent home-seekers states the town is in "Apple Valley."

She expects to file a map of the townsite with the Board of Supervisors, when a rigid investigation into the scheme will be made, before the map is accepted. The property consists of a school section traversed by the road leading to Rabbit Springs, and is said to be a barren waste, devoid of water, and has several times before figured in schemes to part tenderfoot from their coin. It is said that the woman has conducted several parties to the site of the proposed town within the last several weeks.

SEQUEL TO TRAGEDY. John Vignon, an Italian, was arrested at Colton this morning charged with selling liquor without a license. He deposited $25 for his appearance next Monday. The evidence against him was developed at the inquest yesterday over the remains of Pedro Chavez, the widow testifying that she and her husband had bought a number of bottles of beer at Vignon's home the night Chavez met his death, and that they had paid Vignon $5 for beer bought of him during the week.

The second hearing of Dan Bradford, charged with indecent conduct with a four-year-old female child of Upland, was commenced in the Superior Court this morning. Bradford is the son of an Atlanta, Ga., clergyman.

DESPONDENT LAD WIELDS RAZOR.

SANTA ANA BOY ATTEMPTS SELF-DESTRUCTION.

Moroseness Over Ill Health the Cause of the Act—Mother Tries Vainly to Live to See the Face of Her Dead Son—Boy—Telephone Deadlock Is Broken.

SANTA ANA, July 19.—An unsuccessful attempt at suicide was made between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning by Herbert Gallup, an eighteen-year-old boy living on South Main street at the home of J. S. Fox.

When Mr. Fox went into the boy's room about 5 o'clock this morning, he found the boy lying on the bed bleeding profusely from an ugly gash on the neck, and a razor with which he did the work was at his side. The boy volunteered the information that he had cut his throat, and a physician was called to care for him.

The gash was not deep enough to reach the jugular vein, and, although Gallup was bleeding freely, he was able to speak. He said he was morose over his ill health, and that he was tired of living. He said he was tired of living, and that he was tired of living.

Dr. E. Gallup is an orphan, his father, a year ago. He has been dangerously ill with a lingering disease for several months, and has frequently expressed the conviction that he would never recover. Despondency on account of ill health is given by his friends as the cause of the attempt at suicide, as Gallup is a boy of good habits and character.

DEATH WINS THE RACE. A pathetic story of a mother struggling to retain her life until the arrival of the body of her eldest son, who she might live to see the face of her dead son, has come to light.

On January 2 of this year Mrs. Lambert's eighteen-year-old son, Everett C. Lambert, while cruising on the Oregon near Japan, was taken ill and died at Yokohama. The body was embalmed and shipped here for burial.

Grief over the death of her boy, together with heart trouble to which she was subject, induced an illness, and the physicians pronounced fatal. Mrs. Lambert would undoubtedly have died weeks ago but for the hope that she might live to see the face of her dead son.

Yesterday she died, and the funeral services were held yesterday at Mrs. C. C. Lambert's home.

The funeral of the son will be held here the day following at Mrs. Lambert's home, and the body will be laid to rest by the side of that of the heart-broken mother.

Everett Lambert was in the United States naval service three years, and in that time received three promotions. At the time of his death setting as first-class cook.

PHONO DEADLOCK BREAKS. The long deadlock between the supervisors and United States Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph Company in regard to a franchise to allow the corporation to operate on the streets of the county promises to close on an early settlement, according to action taken by the board of supervisors.

The Home Telephone Company, according to a statement given out today, will soon begin installing a central station here, and as soon as completed it will be connected with the main line, which is only a short distance from town.

Radium in Petroleum. Prof. Johann Himstedt of Freiburg University, who was first to controvert the theories of Mme. Curie showing that radium is found in several elements, declares over his own signature that certain gases in oil wells are identical with the properties inherent in radium. He gives it as his mature opinion that oil (meaning petroleum) attracts the radium in the soil and that the Curie can be extracted from the oil itself, or from the earth saturated with it. He further asserts that the radium of the petroleum is what imparts to the distilled kerosene its light-producing quality. He is bold enough to assert that the gas which has been able to separate from the distillation of petroleum is of high specific gravity, and that it is light-producing character in vacuo without ignition.

FULLERTON. FIFTH VIOLENT DEATH.

FULLERTON, July 19.—Frank Hoge, the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. J. M. Hoge, of Placentia, accidentally killed himself this afternoon by the discharge of a .38-caliber revolver. He was at the home of a boy named Frost, and in an adjoining room to that of Frost's father, who was at the time playing with the pistol when it went off.

The pistol belonged to Frost, and was a .38-caliber, and the verdict was self-inflicted.

FLINT GOT IN TOO TARDILY.

His Campaigners See that He Can't Beat Bard.

Candidates for Legislature are Lining Up.

Business Men's Bar Club to Organize Tonight.

With the Assembly primaries only three weeks distant, candidates from the districts of Los Angeles county are conspicuous chiefly by their inactivity.

In certain of the districts but a single Republican candidate has appeared. These are chiefly country districts, however, in which the machine is inoperative.

More sharply drawn than in most previous campaigns is the line of demarcation between the machine and anti-machine candidates. To this fact can be attributed the absence of a field to make the race against the favorite. Most of the districts are partly made up of city precincts. In each there are independent candidates, but the trail of the machine is over them all.

Footprints of the gum-shoe campaign that has been made in the interest of the Southern Pacific candidate for the United States Senate have been discovered in almost every precinct in the county. Candidates pronounced for Senator Bard are leading, but dark horses, branded on the hip with a half-dozen stars, are waiting up down the back track. A light vote and little apparent interest may mean a machine victory.

Printouts of the gum-shoe campaign that has been made in the interest of the Southern Pacific candidate for the United States Senate have been discovered in almost every precinct in the county. Candidates pronounced for Senator Bard are leading, but dark horses, branded on the hip with a half-dozen stars, are waiting up down the back track. A light vote and little apparent interest may mean a machine victory.

W. A. Johnstone of Pomona is about all there is to it in Assembly District No. 68. His is a fruit-growing region, the electors are warm admirers of Senator Bard, and the machine has been punctured a couple of times every time it has crossed the border. Johnstone is outstaked in favor of returning Senator Bard.

Councilman F. U. Nofziger, N. W. Thompson of Alhambra, D. W. Walker of the Ninth Ward and Walker of Long Beach have entered the lists in Assembly District No. 68. Nofziger is unopposed. Walker has announced himself as favoring the candidacy of Senator Bard. Thompson and Stewart are non-committal.

W. H. Kelso of Inglewood, who represented Assembly District No. 70 in the last Legislature, is a candidate for reelection. He is strongly in favor of Senator Bard. Opposed to him are Frank Harbutt of the Fifth Ward, the machine candidate, and W. H. Wickham of San Pedro, who is non-committal. In this district the country vote predominates, and Kelso is considered the favorite.

In District No. 71, Philip A. Stanton, the machine candidate, has attempted to disguise himself by shedding his once-famous name. He has assumed the name of Stanton. He got rid of the whiskers, but the sunset brand is still there. Yesterday Stanton said that he was opposed to Senator Bard on account of the latter's age. Phil thought that an active youngster like Stanton or possibly Frank Flint might get elected for Southern California than Senator Bard. J. W. Kemp Stanton's only opponent opened his campaign with an announcement for Bard and an explanation for anti-machine politics.

Kemp has qualified his Bard declaration, however, by the statement that if his district should instruct for any other Southern California Senatorial candidate he would vote as instructed.

H. G. McConney appears to be playing a lone hand in Assembly District No. 72. He has asked for instructions from his district as to whom he shall support for Senatorial election. It is a compromise between machine and anti-machine. He has not the entire confidence, however, of either party. Each has a dark horse all groomed for the race in case McCartney at any time shows a disposition to trail with the other side.

J. F. Traneau has not yet decided just whom he will support for the United States Senate if he is returned to the Assembly from the Seventy-third District. Traneau gave entire satisfaction to the machine bosses during the last session of the Legislature, and they are giving him aid and comfort in his present campaign. A new Richmond has loomed up as a machine possibility in this district since the last Assembly campaign in the person of James Johnson, who claims to have been a spoke in the Quay machine in the Pennsylvania Assembly. Johnson is an employee of the Los Angeles Railway Company. Frank Barnes, another candidate from the Seventy-third district, has not yet expressed his preferences, but he is supposed to be for E. T. Earl.

Opposed to Earl is Traneau, the machine candidate in Assembly District No. 74. He is Judge Richel of Hollywood, who may be regarded as a dark horse for the reason that he has consented only within the last twenty-four hours to permit his name to go before the convention. Col. Fife has been mentioned as a possible candidate from the Seventy-fourth District, but he has declined to make the race, and is out writing Judge Richel.

Lamar A. Harris, candidate for the Assembly in District No. 75, has announced himself as favorable to the reelection of Senator Bard. Opposed to him is J. H. Krimminger, who has the support of the machine. Krimminger is the business candidate for this district. This year he secured the machine backing by judge from the race for justice of the peace a year ago in favor of Judge Fife.

C. Bowen has been announced as a possible candidate to make the race against Harris. Bowen's candidate is advocated by the machine politicians. H. E. Carter is the machine candidate for the Senate in Senatorial District No. 77. Carter has served the machine in the Assembly, and the bosses regard him as strictly reliable.

Smith, the incumbent, is a candidate to succeed himself. W. H. Holmblad, a very able man and a friend of Bard, is also a candidate for the Senate from this district, and is likely to win.

Howard Broughton of Pomona and

SUPERVISORAL.

RACE IS FAST.

A. L. Stewart of Hynes yesterday gave up his position in the County Assessor's office in order that he might devote his entire time to his campaign for Supervisor in the Fourth Supervisorial District.

A candidate for the Assembly from the "shoe-string" district is accused of making the charge that there are more Sabbath breakers at Long Beach than at either Santa Monica or San Pedro.

He was invited into going into bathing in the Long Beach surf last Sunday, believing that there would be no breakers. He escaped with the loss of a few of his bathing suit.

WAR WHOOOP.

OF TROUBLES.

Local Democracy wants to have at least one good old-fashioned Democratic war whoop during the present campaign.

The chiefs have decided to hold the great pow-wow at Haines' Pavilion next Saturday night.

There will be big bucks and little bucks bedaubed with war paint and bedecked with feathers, shooting off red fire and yelling as if the whole town was burning up.

The braves are so happy because Mr. Parker and Mr. Davis have offered themselves as vicarious sacrifices upon Democracy's altar that she might not utterly perish from the earth.

T. E. Gibson will be chief medicine man.

UNIQUE DRINK MIXER.

"Butler" Who has Made Himself Famous and Popular with All Harvard Men.

Butler is the most unique drink mixer and popular all-around character that the Social Union at Cambridge, he acquired the sobriquet of "Butler," and ever since the name has stuck to him, until now no one knows him save under this name.

Before he was 12 he became a part of Harvard's history, as the mascot of the Crimson football team. He has since that time he has rarely missed an athletic event in Cambridge, and for ten years he has acted as the umpire of the Crimson football annual baseball games.

His extensive acquaintance with Harvard men began when he was first employed to run errands as a small boy for Herbert Foster, a restaurateur in Harvard Square. Since that time he has been a part of the university as John the Orangeman. Harvard sticks out all over Butler, for he has imbibed the atmosphere of the university for twenty-five years by being in close contact with hundreds of men who have passed through.

It is three years since he first became proprietor of the present spa, and with the close of the college season the year is ended this month. He like many Harvard men he knows, will graduate, and next fall will find him opening up a new place of business at No. 128 Massachusetts avenue near the square, in company with another famous restaurateur of Harvard, Mr. Moxley, now located in Brattle Square, under the popular name of "Moxley."

Butler's drinks, together with himself, have made him famous.

There are eight beverages in all to which he lays special claim, all temperance concoctions, with names that add to the Harvard man's pleasure of quaffing.

His "Crimson floats" are lemonade with grape juice floating on top, the mixture having the appearance of a charred lemonade, and many a freshman has been fooled into that belief at Butler's counter.

Among his other well known concoctions are the "Radcliffe cocktail," orangeade and grape juice mixed; the "Crimson cocktail," served in a small glass with a dash of grape juice and orange and a small slice of lemon on top; the "horse neck" feed ginger ale with a spiral of lemon and a straw; the "Lampoon cocktail," whose ingredients are known only to Butler and the members of the Lampoon staff; the "St. Paul's," whipped cream, egg, chocolate syrup and malted milk well shaken; "Toucan," which is the smallest and the hardest of all his drinks of grape juice with an egg with the yolk unbroken floating in it.

Twenty-five years ago, when he received a place upon Benjamin Butler in the Social Union at Cambridge, he acquired the sobriquet of "Butler," and ever since the name has stuck to him, until now no one knows him save under this name.

Harvard sticks out all over Butler, for he has imbibed the atmosphere of the university for twenty-five years by being in close contact with hundreds of men who have passed through.

It is three years since he first became proprietor of the present spa, and with the close of the college season the year is ended this month. He like many Harvard men he knows, will graduate, and next fall will find him opening up a new place of business at No. 128 Massachusetts avenue near the square, in company with another famous restaurateur of Harvard, Mr. Moxley, now located in Brattle Square, under the popular name of "Moxley."

Butler's drinks, together with himself, have made him famous.

There are eight beverages in all to which he lays special claim, all temperance concoctions, with names that add to the Harvard man's pleasure of quaffing.

His "Crimson floats" are lemonade with grape juice floating on top, the mixture having the appearance of a charred lemonade, and many a freshman has been fooled into that belief at Butler's counter.

Among his other well known concoctions are the "Radcliffe cocktail," orangeade and grape juice mixed; the "Crimson cocktail," served in a small glass with a dash of grape juice and orange and a small slice of lemon on

NOW HIS WIFE.

How Miss La Chappelle Came to Meet Senator Clark of Montana.

[Anaconda Standard:] Eastern papers are now dishing up all sorts of material relative to Mr. Clark and his wife, and while some of them may strike pretty close to the facts as to the alleged marriage, they are all half off in their statements in regard to the foundation for the beginning of the romance between Mr. Clark and Miss La Chappelle.

About nine or ten years ago a little golden-haired girl of prepossessing appearance walked into the banking house of James A. Murray in this city, and without much ceremony, asked Mr. Murray to bear the expense of her Clark, saying that that he was wealthy and that she was desirous of acquiring an education at his expense, an expense that would be infinitesimal to him. At that time she possessed an ambition to become an actress, feeling confident from the man in which she had acquired herself in a few local entertainments in which she had previously participated.

That she could attain histrionic honors in the world, Mr. Murray did not know the girl and had never heard of her, so he declined to accept the girl's invitation to help her. He made a suggestion, however, by which she could accomplish that which she had undertaken; he recommended her to Mr. Clark, saying that Mr. Clark was unmarried, had plenty of money and would undoubtedly help her along the road to her career.

Miss La Chappelle then asked Mr. Murray if he would introduce her to Mr. Clark, and he declined, saying that such a move would result in the refusal of Mr. Clark to help her. He told her to go to Mr. Clark the same as she had come to him and lay her case before him. There the meeting ended, and the fact that Mr. Clark and the girl became acquainted shortly afterward indicates that Miss La Chappelle followed the advice given her by Mr. Murray, and Mr. Clark consented to help her.

You should visit Alamitos Bay tract, four miles from Long Beach, and see what a beautiful spot it is for a home by the sea and bay; you can see nearly a dozen cottages being erected by those who appreciate the advantages of this lovely resort. ROMANY HAS TAKEN FLIGHT.

Leaves City to Escape Coat of Tar and Feathers.

Abused His Girl Wife With Fiendish Ingenuity.

Invented Queer Shackles of Unprintable Cruelty.

Charles Wilson Romany has left Los Angeles because an outraged community threatened to arraign him in a suit of tar and feathers.
The one-room shack down in the hollow on Jasmine street will know him no more.
Aroused to a frenzy by the brutal

Mrs. Romany, the Girl Wife, and the Case in Which She Was Kept.

way in which the man had treated his wife, the neighborhood rose up against the locksmith, and the wife-abuser has left for a country where women do not assert their rights.
Romany is the man who recently came under police surveillance because of the unnatural manner in which he had treated his young wife. With fiendish ingenuity the man practiced unprintable cruelties upon his wife.
After having forced himself to believe that she was untrue to her marriage vows.
Forbidden to visit or speak to people
in the vicinity, the frightened wife hardly dared to leave her miserable hovel.
When her condition was discovered
by the neighbors she was caged like a beast and kept in a sort of harness of her husband's invention—the peculiarity of her captivity being such that it could not be described in print. If Ro-many had not fled, he certainly would have been mobbed, such was the pitch
of the feeling against him.
Just in the first flush of young womanhood, the girl-wife who has only recently passed her twenty-first birthday, longed for companionship.
She dared to visit a family named Davenport, who live on the hill above the hollow where the Romany home is located. During one of these afternoon calls the husband returned earlier than usual, and finding the house empty, set down to await his wife's return. When she arrived, without waiting for an explanation, the enraged man struck her repeatedly on the face and breast, knocked her down
put her in her shackles, and kicked her as she lay upon the floor.
Some of the neighbors, attracted by the woman's pitiful cries, came over and forced the ruffian to desist. Then a complaint was sent in to police headquarters, and Romany for the first time feared the strong arm of the law. He suddenly decamped, taking with him some hundreds of dollars he had deposited in one of the local banks and leaving his wife with only $1.50 between herself and starvation.

THE GIRL BRIDE.

Four years ago in the town of Wit-tem, in the county of Essex, England, Romany, who is a Russian Jew of the wandering type, married his present wife, Evelyn Blanche, then a girl of only 17 years, who had just graduated from a Protestant orphan school. The groom was almost 50 years of age, but knowing little of the world, the girl
was easily persuaded by alluring tales of travel in distant lands, and yielded to the earnest entreaties of the foreigner.

She left her native land almost immediately and traveled with her strange mate through nearly every country in Europe, the gypsy husband
earning a livelihood as a musician.
After about two years spent in strange wanderings, the couple came to Canada, and settled down in Winnipeg.
Here for the first time the young wife enjoyed the comforts of life, and the husband seemed proud of his pretty spouse. A baby girl with sunny flaxen hair and laughing blue eyes came to grace the humble home, and life seemed pleasant to the little English wife.

Soon, however, the angel of peace left the home, driven off by the demon
of jealousy aroused in the suspicious husband. The young wife was accused of unfaithfulness; her husband began to abuse and beat her, saying he was determined to destroy her good looks, so that he might have her always for his own. The desire for travel again took firm hold upon the man, but the blue-eyed baby girl was in the way. Clutching her, the wife wrath made the father equal to the occasion, and with a threat of desertion hanging over her head, the young wife was forced to part with her baby.
Two-year-old Phyllis, the joy of her mother's heart, was placed in the Children's Home at Winnipeg, and the couple started on their journey toward the Golden West.

Later, Romany with his child-wife came to Los Angeles and bought the home on Jasmine street. Down in the wash between two small creeks,
the little one-room shack, nestled almost within the shadow of the castle
on the hill, which is the landmark of the neighborhood. Romany is a look-

smith by trade, and he started a shop
at No. 218 West Fifth street.
Peace dwelt not in the humble cabin
so strongly contrasted with the elegant home on the hillside. Jealousy dies hard, especially where its fires are fed with the fuel of dense ignorance. Life again became a weary burden to the young wife, as her every action aroused the ready suspicion of her unreasonable
husband.

Then came the episode with the Davenport family, and the discovery of the facts, and for a short time the police occupied the stage of action. During the final scenes were changed rapidly

Mrs. Romany, the Girl Wife, and the Case in Which She Was Kept.

until the disappearance of the enraged
husband.
WOMAN-LIKE.
Evelyn Blanche Romany tells her story quietly, with an evident desire to shield as far as possible the man who has caused her so much sorrow. Unspeakable wrong and unprintable abuse
have been her portion during the four years of married life. Intelligent and kind, she has been reduced to the condition of a slave.
She has been forced to live in a small room, and has been forbidden to properly assert her womanhood; but few harsh words concerning the author of all her wrong escape her lips.
Last Monday came a letter from Ro-many, dated at San Francisco, and couched in the vilest terms of abuse. He told her he was coming to Los Angeles for employment. The great desire of the mother's heart, however, is to have again the baby daughter, to cherish her longer. This is talk of a subscription to bring baby Phyllis from the far northland.

ORPHEUS STUNT
IN "BLOODY ATE."

FLINT CLUB STARTED BY COME-DIAN "AL" SITTLE.

Gets Out Circular With Amazing
Flow of Starting "Langridge." Believes "He Can Must Right" Hundred "Flint Republicans"
Where Republicans are Unknown.

"Al" Sittle, who is one of the small fry among the Republican leaders, has ordered out the "Bloody Ate" for Flint for Senator. He's getting up a club.

Al wants to be minister to the Nectarians.
Recently he found a list of two-dozen words that he didn't know the meaning of. He collected them all in a herd and pasted them over a sheet of yellow paper which he is now issuing as a grand pronouncement. He imagines he's getting up an Eighth Ward Flint Club.

He says Flint has "that integrity
consonant and especially essential"
to something or other he don't seem to be quite sure what, and comes down
the stretch with "aggressiveness, capacity and proper representation" and
a lovely mouthful of warbling syllables.

The funny part of Albert's spiel is that there are not sufficient Republicans, of Flint or any other persuasion, in the "Bloody Ate" to make a club
big enough to kill a healthy goat.
At the last city election, the Republicans there were so discouraged they did not even offer a candidate for the Council.

"Al" has announced that he will have 800 members in his club.
He has hypnotized himself by the same reasoning by which he has it figured out that "Mr. Flint" is the logical candidate for this high office.

Army Surgeon's Practice.

A contract surgeon has made the interesting inquiry of the War Department whether or not he may practice
his profession of medicine in the State of Georgia, where he is on duty. It has been found that the army regulations are silent on this subject, and that the revised statutes do not make any provision whatever. The medical officer has been informed that he must be governed entirely by the State laws. There is a great difference in the State regulations governing the practice of physicians and surgeons. The State laws must apply, of course, to medical officers of the army and navy when they undertake to practice on their own account.—(New York Tribune.)

RESCUE GANG
IS THWARTED.

Failure of Plot to Liberate Murderer Morales.

Famous Man-killer Securely Lodged in Prison.

Confesses Scheme of Friends to Attack Sheriff.

A murderous gang of paid cholo dependents waited in ambush all yesterday, hoping to overpower Deputy Sheriff Frank Cochran of this city who was due to go over the Southern Pacific in charge of the murderer, Pedro Morales, on the way to State's prison.

A tragedy was averted by the sickness of the Sheriff in sending Morales
North three days ahead of time.
When Cochran returned to Los Angeles yesterday to announce that he had seen Morales safely inside the prison walls at San Quentin, he was greeted with a sigh of relief. Before they parted at the prison, however, Morales confessed to Cochran that a paid gang was to have rescued him
Wednesday (yesterday) and confirmed
the worst suspicions of the Sheriff.

This is the third desperate scheme
of escape that Sheriff White has frustrated within two weeks.
Ever since he was first locked up for the murder of Constable Lee Wilson, Morales has been closely watched. He was brought in from the Mexican border where he was a smuggler and cattle thief and had a fearful reputation.

Less than two weeks ago, one of his relatives came to visit him on a regular jail-visiting day. When he had gone the officers found a small bottle
of acid stuck down in a dark corner
behind a locker where he had placed it for Morales to pick up the first time
he had a chance on some future visiting day.

Pedro doubtless intended to throw
this in the officers' eyes and effect an escape from the jail just before this,
a steel saw was found in Morales's
cell.

He has been waiting in jail for more than a year for the Supreme Court to act on his appeal. Last week the appel was denied. The remittitur arrived Saturday.

Morales manifested a suspicious anxiety to know just what day he would be taken North to prison. The Sheriff told him Tuesday, which was day before yesterday.

Morales immediately sent out for some of his relatives and gave them
the plan which he had conceived to escape.

Pedro's anxiety to know just what day
he would be taken to prison.
The Sheriff changed his plans. He directed that Pedro be taken up Saturday last.

On account of his desperate character, he was loaded down with chains.
When he knew that he must go Saturday, he showed great chagrin.
He had little to say on the way up,
but just before they started, told Cochran that it was lucky for the officers that the date had been

PEDRO MORALES.

changed. He said some of his friends were going to rescue him. He refused to say how or what the signal was to be or where the rescue was to take place.

When the great doors of San Quan-
tín closed upon him, Sunday, he said
wearily that he was glad to be there after all. For fourteen years, he said, he had been dodging officers and he was ired of it; he said he was glad to get into prison on no worse terms
than a ten-year sentence and have it all over with.

Morales is admitted to be the most desperate man ever locked in the County Jail. He is the last of the picturesque California bandits. Hardly old enough to be a grandfather, he is a wilder or a longer chase.

He looks the bandit part.
Pedro's eyes are hot, uneasy, restless and keen as pieces of fire. He walks with that peculiar soft slouch that one associates with Indians. He seems to be moving with lazy slowness, but is as quick as a tiger cat
and less merciful. He has a terrible strength and a mountainous build.

When he was brought to jail over a year ago, he could shoot the head off a running calf at fifty paces with his pistol and did so often to show his prowess.

shot him, inflicting a fatal wound. He then made his escape.
For years he led the wildest kind of life among the hills of the Los Angeles County Jail, he looked like a wild man with long fierce unkempt hair
and a crazy sombrero jammed over those glittering eyes.

His friends rallied to his support and he made so hot a fight in the court that his neck was saved from the gallows. The jury fixed the crime at main-slaughter, for which Morales got the limit—ten years.

LOCAL RAILROAD RECORD.

GRADE OF "CROSS-TOWN" ELEC-TRIC IS QUESTIONED.

Residents of Avenue Twenty-six
are Indignant Over Manner
in Which Their Street Improvements Have Been Ignored in the Laying of New Car Line.

Property owners on Avenue 26, along the line of the new "cross-town" road,
being built by the Los Angeles Railway Company, are aroused by the action of the road builders in placing the track high above the present street level. The matter will be taken before the City Council at its next session, when the property owners will ask for relief from what they term
an imposition.

The new track, which starts from the end of the old Daly-street line at the conjunction of Daly-street and Passa-dena avenue, runs north on Avenue 26
to Griffin avenue, and the rails stand from six inches to a foot above the street level. In some cases, particularly at the intersection of Workman street and Avenue 26, the iron rails
are higher than the cement sidewalks
on the higher side of the avenue.

The company's surveyors were at work on the avenue yesterday running lines, and in response to inquiries as to the cause of this difference in the two levels, the head surveyor said that they were simply following the lines
given them by the City Engineer, and that if this threw the road above the present street level it was no fault of the railway company—that it was up to the engineer, or to the parties who had accepted the street improvement
in years gone by.

City Engineer Stafford stated last night that the Los Angeles Railway Company had gone ahead with its constructive work without it being his duty to object to it.

Of the streets on which they intend to build, and we then mark the official grades. This has not been done in the present case, and the company has gone ahead on its own responsibility.

Yes, I have had complaints about the matter, and I personally inspected the street today. It appears to me that the railroad is far above grade, and I am awaiting the instructions of the City Council to make a survey that will be-termine just what the situation is.

The situation is particularly aggravating to residents along Avenue 26 inasmuch as they have been at much expense to get the avenue opened up to Griffin avenue and have been assessed heavily for the street improvements.

About seven years ago enterprising residents of the neighborhood began agitating for the opening of the street from Pasadena avenue to Griffin, and the land cost them between $500 and $10,000. Then on top of this came the expense of street grading, curbing and sidewalking, making the total expense for opening the avenue run up to at least $15,000.

Avenue 26 is a 60-foot street, and it is now occupied by the double tracks
of the new line. There was objection to having the route go over this street
because of its width, but now that the tracks from a miniature mountain range in the center of the avenue, this objection has been heated. There is scarcely room for a wagon to pass on either side between the cement
curbs and the rails.

Work on the new "cross-town" line
was begun last week, and has made rapid progress. One track is now laid out on Griffin avenue as far as Avenue 26, and the second track is completed on Avenue 26 and will be begun today on Griffin avenue. The trolley poles and wires are all in place, and at the present rate the road will be ready for operation within another week.

"RICHS OF CHRIST."

William Ward Simpson Speaks on Visible and Invisible Creative Power of God.

"The Unsearchable Riches of Christ" was the subject of the discourse of William Ward Simpson at the Gospel
Tabernacle, Seventh and Spring streets, last evening. Christ, he said, was revealed as the one by whom all things were created, in heaven and in the earth, whether visible or invisible, existing with the Father from the days of eternity, before the creative power of God was exercised. Proverbs viii:22-29 was quoted to show that the Son was the delight of the Father,
and that all things were created for Him and by Him was shown by their scriptures.

Consistent with God, and sharing with Him the glory of heaven, Christ was shown to have laid aside all the wealth of the universe to take upon Himself the nature of mankind, that He might save man through His poverty might be rich was shown by texts culled from other scriptures.

What such a Christian life was shown tonight, the subject being
"Heaven: Where is it and What is it?" Beginning at 3 p.m. today and Bible readings will be given at the tabernacle.

LOCAL POLITICS.
GRAND START
OF BARD CLUB.

Local Business Men Perfect Organization.

Listen to Splendid Speech by Will A. Harris.

Ex-Congressman Houghton
is Made President.

Enthusiasm burst forth in Blanchard
Hall last night when W. H. Houghton declared that he had overcome the preference of a lifetime to seek a seat
in the State Senate that he might lend his support to the candidacy of "that eminent statesman and good citizen, Thomas R. Bard."

Over three hundred staid men of af-airs, unaccustomed to taking active part in political demonstrations, stood upon their chairs and cheered until nature refused to longer lend them a voice. They came to sign the roster of the Business Men's Bard Club, and remained to take part in the first real local demonstration of the Senatorial campaign.

Will A. Harris had worked them up

SEN. S. O. HOUGHTON.

to a high pitch of enthusiasm in an eloquent address, in which he reviewed
the work done by Senator Bard during his six years in the Senate, and linked his name with that of President Roosevelt as the "discoverers of the Arid West." Candidates for the State Senate and Assembly followed, each proclaiming that he aspired to office
for the sole purpose of furthering the cause of the people's candidate as against that of the corporations.

Called for the purpose of completing the organization of the Business Men's Bard Club, the meeting proved highly successful. When Temporary Chairman A. B. Case had the members of the club welcome, over 300 business men were in their seats, and the roster contained more than 1100 names.

After briefly stating the purposes of the organization, Mr. Case named a nominating committee composed of L.
L. Elliott, S. C. Graham and F. J.
Whiffen, to select a permanent president for the club. This committee has reported that they had agreed to place in nomination ex-Congressman S. O.
Houghton. The nomination was ratified amid much enthusiasm.

Mr. Houghton in a brief address told something of the early history of the Republican party in California, and said that he represented California in the lower house of Congress at a time when his district comprised San Francisco and all the territory in the State lying south of San Francisco. "In making a name and place for southern California in the United States Senate," said Mr. Houghton, "Senator Bard has made a name and place for himself. He is the peer of any man who has ever represented this State in the Senate."

"I have seen many Senators during my time, but most of them were light-weights. Other candidates have been mentioned to represent California in Washington, but they are not in Senator Bard's class. Each of them represents a corporation; Senator Bard
represents a commonwealth."

Senator Bard, like most of his opponents, is a representative candidate.
The difference lies here: Each of them
represents a corporation; Senator Bard
represents a commonwealth.

Mr. Houghton named the following list of vice-presidents for the Business Men's Bard Club: City—A. B.
Case, C. M. Staud, Niles Pease, E. G.
Pay, J. L. Lowman, W. M. Caswell,
Robert Hale, Milo M. Potter, A. T.
Currier, C. J. Kubach, N. B. Blackstone, H. B. Woodill, L. W. Hinn, F.
Z. Forrester, E. Bouton, Dr. H.
Wing, John M. C. Marble, H. C. Witmer, all of Los Angeles.

George O. Barrow, Anna; D. M.
Cram, Compton; S. R. Jenson, Cor-vina; E. L. Brown, Fernando; Paul de Longpre, Hollywood; P. E. Hatch,
Long Beach; W. A. Walker, Monrovia;
A. L. King, Palms; L. H. Armstrong,
Redondo; Robert F. Jones, Santa Monica; J. P. Armstrong, Whittier; H. C.
Downing, San Pedro; V. W. Hayes,
Wilmington; E. L. Doran, Avalon; R.
J. Burdette, Pasadena; P. J. Dreher, Pomona.

Will A. Harris sounded the keynote of the Bard campaign in a forceful and eloquent address. At each mention of Senator Bard's name or achievements the cheering broke forth anew.
Mr. Harris said:

MR. HARRIS'S SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Bard Club: It is in no spirit of personal antagonism that this club has been organized. It is not because we desire the defeat of any candidate, that we are met together.
It is a positive and not a negative club. We are taking an active and earnest part in the Senatorial struggle
through no feeling of animosity to Mr.

FIGHTING FOR BEACH BUYERS.

BARBED-WIRE FENCE WAR AT HUNTINGTON BEACH.

Town Boomers Disturbed by Efforts of Outside Speculators—Appeal to the Authorities—Assemblyman Amersbach Sues to Be Re-elected.

SANTA ANA, July 20.—A lively war is on at the new seaside resort of Huntington Beach between rival property owners and real estate dealers who bid fair to result in a tangled lawsuit. Huntington Beach was opened to the public by the energy of the Huntington Beach Company, which has been building the sale of all lots through duly authorized agencies. When the big rush of buyers was brought about at the beginning of July by the completion of the electric road, some long-headed speculators from Long Beach and Los Angeles bought up considerable tracts of land at the east of Huntington Beach, and made some successful attempts to divert investors from Huntington Beach to their properties. The Huntington Beach people, however, rebelled against the intruders raking in the shekels that would otherwise have gone to themselves, and in an attempt to keep people from getting access to the new subdivisions, have built a five-foot barbed-wire fence on the east side of their property from the ocean line a long distance inland, so that there is no other way to get to the speculators' land but to go around the fence. The men who are thus shut out from the beach have appealed to the District Attorney for aid, and will present a petition at the next meeting of the Huntington Beach board to have a county road opened up through the fence, and falling of this, will bring injunction proceedings to have the fence removed.

INJURIES CAUSED DEATH.

Coroner Smith held an inquest at Anaheim today over the remains of Alva O. Rounds of that place, who died last night from the effect of injuries received Sunday by being caught in the machinery of his father's pumping plant. Rounds went down the well to examine a pump, and was caught by the vertical shaft, and he was doubled up and beaten against the sides of the well. Internal injuries resulted in death last night.

GOT FOUR BUCKS.

The first deer of the season were brought in last night by G. A. Harlin and E. A. Humphrey of Orange, and W. R. Carpenter of Fullerton, who, in company with Stewart brothers of Capistrano, killed four fine bucks in the San Juan Hills Monday evening. The deer were brought in by the Harlin and Carpenter party one each and one of the Stewart boys succeeded in getting the fourth. The deer dressed ranged from sixty-five to 115 pounds in weight, and form one of the largest catches ever made in the San Juan Hills of recent years. In the same territory last year there were not more than eight deer shot during the entire season.

FORBID HOPE.

The Orange County Democratic Convention is scheduled to come off early in September, according to the present plans of the Executive Committee, but the event is excitable in the air, either among Republicans or Democrats. The work of the convention will be to nominate delegates to Congress and Senatorial conventions, and to name a candidate for Assembly. The Assemblyman nomination is stirring up some speculation, as it is considered the Democrats will put their strongest man in the field to oppose the Republican nominee, E. R. Amersbach of Fullerton, with the hope of landing the Assembly record made by Amersbach at the last session was such that he could be re-elected in a Democratic county. Here the Democratic cause is hopeless.

PERIDINUM RETURNS.

That minute organism known to science as the peridinium and to common folks as the "phosphorescent bug," which at times appears in countless millions in the surf at the various beaches, has again put in an appearance at the long stretches of beach on the southern portion of the Orange county. Several years ago the appearance of the peridinium caused a wonderful display in the waves from Santa Monica to San Diego. It was worth traveling miles to see the phosphorescent glow of the water, which when the breakers rolled in, made the ocean look like molten gold. Beach resorts vied with each other in advertising the presence of the little "bug," each claiming that its particular beach was the most beautiful. After a time the peridinium died, and the decomposition of the myriads of these microscopic organisms caused an almost unbearable stench to arise from the ocean. Many people left the beach resorts to get away from the stench, and at some of the resorts summer business was almost ruined. If there is another visitation of the little marine animals in such numbers as to extend along the coast, there may be a repetition of that experience.

NOTES OF THE NEWS.

The body of Mrs. Theresa Folk, who was killed by a car in the city of this city, was brought here today from Los Angeles for interment in the Santa Ana cemetery. Services were held at the grave. The body of Mrs. Folk was married July 14 to Miss Bessie Cameron at the home of the bride in Magdalena, N. M. The young couple became engaged during a visit made by Miss Cameron to Mr. Folk last winter. The Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company is putting in a new four-foot concrete pipe across the Santiago Creek near El Modena to replace the old conduit at that point. The first buyers in the field for the local dried apricot crop are offering 7 cents a pound, a price which is being refused, as the growers confidently expect to get 8 cents and more before the season is over. Much of the fruit continues to go to waste for lack of hands to pick and cut it. On account of the scarcity of help and the smallness of the fruit much of it is being cut by mechanical processes.

PLACENTIA.

DEATH OF CAPT. WREDE. PLACENTIA, July 20.—Capt. W. Wrede, who had been well-known in Orange county for over twenty-five years, died at home here yesterday and was buried in the Anaheim cemetery this afternoon under the auspices of the Anaheim Masonic Lodge. He had been an invalid for a number of years, and was stricken with paralysis some time ago, from which he never recovered. He was captain on one of the fast passenger liners across the Atlantic Ocean for many years. He leaves a valuable ranch in Placentia, which will go to his nephew. A man

FEDERAL OFFICERS ACT IN SAN BERNARDINO CASE.

First Forest Fire of the Season Raging in Lytle Creek District. Santa Fe Employees Accused of Raising Pay Checks — Divorce Granted.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 20.—Inspector Jenkins this morning lodged in the County Jail Francisco Cruz, charged with having eluded the quarantine officers when he and his family entered this country from Mexico some seven months ago. Cruz is the father of a leper boy, who has been running a large latrine at Colton for six months, despite the fact that Dr. C. C. Sherman diagnosed the affliction properly, and made an effort to get the Town Board of Health to act, but being members of a different school from that to which Dr. Sherman belongs, they declared the ailment to be simple eczema. The County Health Officer was appealed to, but refused to take action, and it was only after the board had taken the matter up that the boy was placed under restraint. He is a horrible sight, his entire body being covered with great blotches, from which the white scales peel. The family knew that he was afflicted with leprosy, and made no secret of it when discussing the matter with the physicians.

WANTED TO FIGHT.

The Board of City Trustees held a lively meeting last night, when numerous complaints were received concerning the action of the water inspectors, appointed to collect fines, where they detect the sprinkling ordinance being violated. During the discussion which followed P. Perdue, one of the complainants, invited a speaker to remove his star and engage in a fight with the board. The offer was not accepted. The session ended by the City Attorney giving the inspectors lecture warning them not to press the ordinance too literally.

GOT HER DECREE.

A final decree of divorce was entered this morning for Mrs. Carrie Secombe, who was granted the decree a year ago on the grounds of cruelty and failure to provide. The basis of the action was Secombe's alleged vegetarianism, he having prohibited meats, butter or other things obnoxious to vegetarians. He departed for Arizona when the complaint was filed, and succeeded in evading service, thus forcing the wife to a property settlement favorable to him.

RAISED PAY CHECKS.

For the sum of 50 cents J. N. Navarro, an employee of the Santa Fe, has placed himself in line as a candidate for the penitentiary. Last Friday, when Navarro was paid off, he received a check for $34.10, and it is alleged that he changed the amount and passed it off for $4.10. The raised check he brought to the cashier this morning when it was turned into the company's cashier he refused to sign it up, quickly recognizing the bungling error of some employee. Since this exposure other checks which Navarro is alleged to have altered, the company is now on guard, and he was arrested today by Sheriff Ralph.

FIRST FOREST FIRE.

The first mountain fire of the season is raging in Lytle Creek, and from appearances has evidently got away from the rangers, who with the assistance of a large number of men, are fighting the flames. It is thought that the fire originated from a camp. It has already swept a wide area, and there is some fear expressed here for the power plants situated in the cañon.

REDLANDS.

NOTED HOUSE TRANSFERRED. REDLANDS, July 20.—What is known here as the "Gen. Lawton Place," a handsome house crowning an eminence in the center of a sixteen-acre orange tract on Terracina, is to be enlarged and will be used for a family hotel. The present proprietor, Col. J. T. Ritchey, bought the place from Mrs. Lawton after her husband's death in the Philippines, and has raised there ever since. The place will cost an investment of about $100,000. The new structure is to be a three-story house. The long gallery, 225 feet from end to end, which is a noticeable feature of the old house, will remain undisturbed. The place was occupied for seven years as a residence by Mrs. Lawton. When President McKinley was here he insisted on visiting the place, and President Roosevelt also asked to drive past the house. It has been one of Redlands' show places ever since Gen. Lawton's death. The view is unsurpassed, commanding a view of the San Bernardino range and valley for miles. The completed building will contain forty-five rooms, have an abundance of verandas and out-of-door room. Col. Ritchey proposes to cut up the whole tract into lots in the near future.

RIALTO.

APRICOT SEASON CLOSING. RIALTO, July 20.—The apricot season has about closed. In Rialto and West Rialto and Bloomington only a small quantity of fruit has been handled compared to last year, when six carloads of green apricots and 54,932 pounds of dried fruit were sent to market from the Rialto station alone. The variability of the crop has caused the growers to be reluctant to get 5 cents and more before the season is over. Much of the fruit continues to go to waste for lack of hands to pick and cut it. On account of the scarcity of help and the smallness of the fruit much of it is being cut by mechanical processes.

ONTARIO.

HORSE TRAINER INJURED.

ONTARIO, July 20.—W. J. Welsh, a horse trainer, was painfully injured by a runaway accident here yesterday afternoon. He was driving a spirited pacer, hitched to a one-seated buckboard, and training a colt to pace by leading it behind. On account of the ropes on the colt, it could not readily keep up and in some way lurching forward entangled its front legs in the spokes of the right wheel, thus tearing some of them out. The noise naturally frightened the horse, which ran wildly, throwing out the driver. Welsh's back was hurt and he was severely bruised. The Independent Order of Foresters held a meeting Tuesday evening in the L.O.O.F. Hall. There was an address by Hon. Thomas Regans of San Bernardino and others. Numerous members from Pomona, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Fresno and other localities were present.

NEW GUN CLUB IN RIVERSIDE.

WELL-KNOWN SPORTSMEN FORM NEW ORGANIZATION.

Board of Health to Investigate Charges Against Health Officer and Others — Annual Report of County Assessor — Two Well-known Couples Married.

RIVERSIDE, July 20.—The interest among Riverside sportsmen in blue-rock shooting is far from on the wane, and of late has been centered about the formation of a new club, to be known as the Riverside Gun Club. The club has obtained the grounds, set up traps and is building an attractive little clubhouse on East Eighth street across the canal, on the site of the old Rubidoux golf links. The initial shoot will be held tomorrow, and a drawing programme has been prepared.

The new club begins life under promising circumstances, with a charter membership of almost thirty. The roll contains the names of such sportsmen as Dr. M. E. Taber, Owen Council, J. L. Davis, A. L. Woodell, W. A. Correll, C. F. I. Kinneer, Harry B. Chase, M. Estudillo, Clark Hancock, George Boyle, Ray McCorkle, W. Jones, C. F. Stone, C. Packard, J. G. Haneler, J. H. Thompson, E. H. Verrell, A. L. Merriam, R. R. McClure, Geo. Mort, A. M. Hinkley, S. L. Miller, Frank Gregory, M. T. Cuniff, Frank Humphreys, George E. Hahn and Frank Freeman. Many others who are all promising the club and are hunting and fishing, and have signified intention of joining upon their return.

CHARGES, COUNTER-CHARGES.

The City Board of Health has been called to investigate charges being made against City Health Officer Dr. Baird for alleged negligence in quarantining against infectious diseases, and counter-charges made by Dr. Baird against the board. Physicians in not reporting cases. Dr. Baird made open charges against a physician of prominence at the trustees' meeting Tuesday, saying that he had failed to report two cases he knew of, and threatening him with prosecution if he could get sufficient proof. The board has since upped the ante, and motion among local practitioners.

ASSESSOR'S REPORT.

Assessor Montague has completed his assessment rolls. In Riverside county there are 956,000 orange trees in one bearing, 208,074 non-bearing, 114 lemons in bearing, and 7074 non-bearing; 19,189 peaches in bearing and 9414 non-bearing; 9578 pears in bearing, 4212 non-bearing; 53,314 apples in bearing and 11,647 non-bearing; 1247 apples in bearing and 241 non-bearing; only 17 cherry trees, in bearing; 591 figs in bearing, and 285 non-bearing; and 8177 prunes in bearing and 285 non-bearing.

PANN-KIMBLEY.

In a home wedding solemnized at noon today at the Pann residence on West Seventh street, Miss Julia Pann became the bride of Thomas Kimbley of San Francisco. Only the immediate families and a few friends were present, among the latter being Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pann of Los Angeles, and the following young ladies, all classmates of the bride at the Los Angeles Normal: Misses Laura and Mary Cole of Long Beach and Miss Bessie Knappe of San Bernardino. Rev. George Ring of the Christian Church officiated, using the simple ring service. After the ceremony and an elaborate wedding breakfast, the young couple left for San Francisco, where the groom is in business. The bride is the youngest of the Pann sisters and brothers, and is a charming girl, loved by hosts of friends. The groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimbley of this city, a young man of fine character and business ability. Both are graduates from the Riverside High School with the class of '99.

CLAUSON-CRELLER.

A pretty wedding was celebrated today at the home of M. E. parsonage, when Arthur Creller and Minnie E. Clauson were made man and wife by Rev. B. S. Hayward. Only a few immediate friends were present, besides the families. The young couple left for a brief honeymoon trip to Los Angeles, and coast points after which they will return to make their home in Los Angeles. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Creller of this city. The recent death of the bride's father left her without near relatives here.

NEWS-NOTES.

Miss Bertha Smith, District Deputy Grand President, installed the newly-elected officers of the Rebekah lodge at Elsinore last night. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Schneider, who returned early this morning, while Miss Smith went on to San Jacinto to install officers in the lodge there tonight. The fire department has received 1100 feet of new hose, and has it unpacked, ready for use. The new lot is much stronger than the old hose, but it is the intention of the fire boys to use both alternately, giving time for each piece to dry thoroughly before
